Scholar and former U.S. assistant secretary to discuss Medicaid reform Nov. 9 at Vanderbilt University

NASHVILLE, Tenn. – Robert Helms, resident scholar and director of Health Policy Studies at the American Enterprise Institute, will deliver a lecture “Medicaid Reform: Perspective from the Medicaid Advisory Commission” Thursday, Nov. 9, at 12:10 p.m. at Vanderbilt University.

The lecture is free and open to public and will be held in the Alumni Room at the Vanderbilt Law School.

Helms is a former assistant secretary for planning and evaluation for the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services and a current member of the department’s Medicaid Advisory Commission.

The lecture is being co-sponsored by the Health Policy Center at the Vanderbilt Institute for Public Policy Studies and Vanderbilt Law School.
