Thank you.

For more than half a century, gifts from the alumni of Vanderbilt Law School have had a very real, very direct impact on the school. Your generosity has allowed us to reach a level of excellence shared by only the finest of schools.

In addition to attracting the brightest students and most outstanding faculty, your gifts help us create and implement new initiatives such as the Ph.D. degree program in law and economics that begins next fall.

Each and every gift to the Law School—each and every year—is vital to our ongoing success. Thank you for making a difference, now and in the future.
