

What are they doing in there?

Recent Works by the Department of Art

Presented by the Vanderbilt University Fine Arts Gallery

October 21 - December 9, 2010

The Department of Art returns to its old stomping grounds at Cohen Hall with a lively exhibition by the faculty and staff. Works range from ceramics by Susan DeMay and TJ Edwards, to printmaking and video art by Mark Hosford and Amelia Winger-Bearskin, drawing and painting by Marilyn Murphy and Ron Porter, mixed media by Adrienne Miller, photography by Vesna Pavlović and Diane Acree, sculpture by Mel Ziegler, chair of the department, and Michael Aurbach, and experiments in collaborative pyrotechnics by Don Evans.

What Are They Doing in There? Recent Works by the Department of Art is organized by the Vanderbilt University Fine Arts Gallery and curated by Joseph S. Mella, director.

For more information on the exhibition, including examples of the artists' work, please visit www.vanderbilt.edu/gallery.

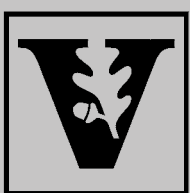

Opening reception:

Thursday, October 28

5 to 7 p.m. at the Fine Arts Gallery

The reception and exhibition are free and open to the public.

Artist Gallery Talks: Friday, October 22, 1-2 p.m.

VANDERBILT UNIVERSITY

Vanderbilt University
Fine Arts Gallery
Cohen Memorial Hall
1220 21st Avenue South
Nashville, Tennessee 37203
(615) 322-0605 Gallery
(615) 343-1702 Office
www.vanderbilt.edu/gallery

Gallery Hours

12-4 p.m., Monday through Friday
Thursdays until 8 p.m.

1-5 p.m., Saturday and Sunday

Closed for Thanksgiving Break: Nov. 20-28

For ADA inquiries, please contact the Fine Arts Gallery at (615) 343-1702.

Limited metered parking is available in front of the building by the 21st Avenue entrance. Additional metered parking is available on 18th Avenue South, on the eastern edge of Peabody Campus.

Vanderbilt University is committed to principles of equal opportunity and affirmative action. "Vanderbilt" and the Vanderbilt logo are registered trademarks and service marks of Vanderbilt University. Design by Adrienne Miller, Department of Art, Vanderbilt University, 2010.