Vanderbilt Head Coach Tim Corbin

After nine seasons as an assistant coach at baseball power Clemson, Tim Corbin moves into the role of Commodore head coach in 2003 and looks to construct similar success at Vanderbilt.

Corbin helped the Tiger program produce more victories than all but four programs in the nation from 1994-2002. Clemson won more than 71 percent (434 wins, 172 losses) of its games, captured two Atlantic Coast Conference regular season titles, made nine appearances in the NCAA Tournament and fought its way to the College World Series four times (1995, 1996, 2000, and 2002) while Corbin assisted head coach Jack Leggett. The Tigers ended the 2002 season with their ninth consecutive top 25 finish and their sixth top 10 finish since 1994.

Joining Clemson as an assistant coach in 1994, Corbin worked his way up the Tiger coaching staff. Earning two promotions, Corbin received the title of assistant head coach in 1998 before becoming the associate head coach and recruiting coordinator in September 2001.

Along the way the organized, focused and enthusiastic understudy earned a national reputation as one of the most respected assistant coaches in the country. He worked intensely while collecting nine talented recruiting classes — all of which were recognized among the top 25 in the nation. His on-field work developing outfielders and hitters helped 20 Clemson players earn All-America accolades while 34 Tigers were later drafted to play professional baseball.

Corbin's dedication and attention to detail caught the eye of the national baseball publication Baseball America on numerous occasions. In 1997, it touted the Clemson coaching staff as one of the top five "College Recruiting Staffs" in the country. It later tabbed the 1999 Tiger freshman class as No. 1 nationally. And in 2000, Baseball America and the American Baseball Coaches Association named Corbin its National Coach of the Year.

In 2000, Southern California head coach Mike Gillespie served as skipper of the USA Baseball team and quickly chose Corbin as an assistant on his staff. The staff helped guide the Americans to a gold-medal finish at the World Championships in the Netherlands, setting a record for best winning percentage (.900).

Prior to his tenure at Clemson, Corbin served as head coach at Presbyterian College for six seasons beginning in 1988. Restarting a baseball program that laid dormant for several years, Corbin directed Presbyterian College from NAIA to Division II status, posting a 106-138 overall record. Along the way, Corbin guided the Blue Hose to three consecutive appearances in the South Atlantic playoffs (1991-93) while earning South Atlantic Coach of the Year honors in 1990.

WHAT OTHERS ARE SAYING ABOUT TIM CORBIN

Mike Gillespie, Head Coach at Southern California and Head Coach of 2000 gold-medal winning USA Baseball Team where Corbin was an assistant

"He's on my short list of best coaches I've come across. He's spectacular. He's a young guy with knowledge beyond his years. It's vast. He's a great student of all phases of the game. He's bright and can articulate what he knows and believes. Plus, he has an outstanding ability in establishing a rapport with his kids. He has a great sense of humor. Vanderbilt is very lucky to have him. He was very happy at Clemson and in order for him to leave he would have to come across a job that he perceived as a great opportunity."

Jack Leggett, Head Coach at Clemson

"He's got a great recruiter's mentality, leaving no stone unturned. He has a tremendous work ethic and is the most organized person I have ever seen. He also possesses the ability to stay focused on the task at hand. When you combine those three things you have an outstanding recruiter. He's also very knowledgeable about the game of baseball and did a great job working with our hitters and outfielders the past several years at Clemson."

Khalil Greene, 2002 National Player of the Year and former Clemson infielder recruited by Corbin. Greene was drafted by San Diego in first round (13th pick) of 2002 Draft.

"Coach Corbin is one of the most dedicated people I've ever met. Whether it's working out in the weightroom with the players or recruiting, once he decides to do something he goes full bore ahead."

"He helped me a lot with the hitting aspects of my game. He knows a lot of the intricacies of different players' swings. So anytime you go into a slump, he knows the little things to point out and says them in a way to motivate you and help you turn around your swing.

"I've enjoyed knowing him off the field and going to his house and hanging out. I consider him as much a friend as any of the players on my team. He's a great person."

Vanderbilt Plays Host to Music City Classic

Vanderbilt baseball plays host to the Music City Classic Friday through Sunday at Hawkins Field. The Commodores (5-3) will take on Rutgers (0-2) Friday at 4 p.m., battle Kent State Saturday at 2 p.m. and face No. 17/23 Kansas Sunday at 1 p.m. When the three out-of-town teams are not playing Vanderbilt, they will travel to either Lipscomb or Middle Tennessee to compete.

Vanderbilt enters the classic coming off a split in two mid-week shut outs. Wednesday saw the Commodores manage only three hits against Belmont pitching in a 1-0 defeat. VU bounced back on Thursday, limiting Trevecca to a trio of hits in a combined 4-0 shut out of the Trojans.

Strong pitching and solid defense continue to carry the Commodores in the early season. The Vanderbilt pitching staff carries an amazing 2.12 ERA into the weekend. Only one earned run has been surrendered by VU pitchers in the last 19 innings of work. And opposing batters are hitting a meager .208 off Commodore pitchers on the season.

Defensively, Vanderbilt has coughed up only five errors on the year and zero in the last 21 innings.

Sophomore shortstop Ryan Klosterman leads all Commodore hitters with a .407 average. He has hit safely in all but three games this year and brings a .529 on-base percentage into the weekend. Freshman outfielder Warner Jones has hit safely in six of eight games this year and is tied with Klosterman for team-high honors in hits with 11.

A Look Back at Vanderbilt's Last Games

Vanderbilt Shuts Out Trevecca, 4-0

NASHVILLE, Tenn. - Vanderbilt pitchers Blake Owen, Nick Pilkington, Jonathan Douillard and Jeremy Sowers limited Trevecca to three hits and combined for a 4-0 shutout victory, Thursday, Feb. 27 at Hawkins Field. The win improves Vanderbilt's record to 5-3 while Trevecca slips to 8-4.

In his first collegiate start, Owen (1-0) allowed only one hit and struck out two in four innings of work to earn his first win. Pilkington and Douillard each made their collegiate pitching debuts. Pilkington scattered two hits while striking out three and walking two in 2.2 innings. Douillard struck out a pair in 1.1 innings. Sowers closed things out in the ninth, retiring the Trojans in order.

Vanderbilt jumped out to a 2-0 lead in the first inning. Warner Jones walked and took third base two batters later when Ryan Klosterman blooped a double to right center field. Cesar Nicolas brought in Jones with a RBI ground out to short. Klosterman came in soon after on a passed ball by Trevecca catcher Nick Hiter.

In the second inning, Matt McGraner blooped a hit into right field and hustled to second for a double. Rucker Taylor followed with a single to right field that went under the glove of Trevecca's Eric Reid and scored McGraner to give the Commodores a 3-0 advantage.

Vanderbilt added its final run in the eighth when Worth Scott walked, took second and third base on a sacrifice bunt by Matt Zeller, and scored on a RBI fielder's choice off the bat of Gil Kim.

Seven different Commodores registered hits in the game led by Ryan Godfrey's 2-for-4 effort at the plate.

Trevecca managed to move only three runs into scoring position on the day. Hiter notched two of the Trojans three hits.

Scouting Rutgers

Rutgers enters the weekend with an 0-2 record, dropping a pair of games at Old Dominion. The Scarlet Knights are in the midst of a season-long 19-game road trip to start the season.

Rutgers is led by sophomore outfielder Jeff Frazier who earned Freshman All-American accolades last season. Baseball America ranked Frazier the 20th best sophomore in the country in its 2003 college baseball preview.

The Scarlet Knights finished the 2002 campaign with a 35-22 record but failed to reach the NCAA Tournament for the first time in five years.

Vanderbilt and Rutgers have never met on the baseball diamond.

Scouting Kent State

Kent State brings a 2-1 record to Nashville and takes on Lipscomb on Friday before battling Vanderbilt on Saturday.

The Golden Flashes return 17 letterwinners and six position starters from last year's team that finished 37-22 and advanced to an NCAA Regional. Preseason polls have Kent State winning the Eastern Division of the Mid-American Conference and league's tournament crown.

Last week Matt Saga nabbed MAC East Division Player of the Week honors after going 2-for-5 with a home run and five RBI against Wagner and was 7-for-15 (.467) in Kent State's opening three-game series.

Vanderbilt owns a 4-2 advantage in the Kent State series all-time.

Scouting Kansas

Kansas brings an 11-3 overall mark and national rankings from Collegiate Baseball (No. 17) and Baseball America (No. 23) to Nashville. The Jayhawks play at Middle Tennessee on Friday and at Lipscomb on Saturday before coming to Hawkins Field on Sunday.

The Jayhawks gained national attention when they swept Southeastern Conference power LSU (9-6, 6-4, 9-7) in Baton Rouge two weeks ago.

KU's top hitter is Matt Tribble with a .500 average (25-for-50). He has one home run and 12 RBI. Kansas' top long ball threat is Kevin Wheeler (three). Brandon Johnson (3-0, 1.72 ERA) and Ryan Knippschild (3-0, 4.15 ERA) are undefeated on the season. Wheeler leads all pitchers with 20 strikeouts.

Vanderbilt and Kansas have never met on the baseball diamond.

- SEASON NOTES -

Klosterman Sets Single-Game Assists Record

Sophomore shortstop Ryan Klosterman set the Vanderbilt single-game record for assists with 11 against East Tennessee State in the Commodores' 5-4 win (2/18). The previous record was nine held by four former Commodores, including Terry Geshke (vs. Georgia [4/21/62]), Joey Jackson (vs. Rollins [3/4/86]), Dede Malmo (vs. Lipscomb [3/30/88]) and Brad Reese (vs. Memphis [3/11/90]).

While the Southeastern Conference does not have records for most assists, the NCAA record book lists only eight other players in collegiate baseball history to register more than 11 assists in a nine-inning game. The NCAA record is 14 set by Florida's Kevin Polcovich against Tennessee (4/27/91).

Klosterman recorded at least one assist in seven different innings. He was busiest in the second inning, when he made all three assists, and in the seventh and eighth innings when he lent a hand in two of the three outs.

Nicolas' Comeback Complete

Cesar Nicolas completed an amazing comeback when he made his first start of the season against East Tennessee State (2/18). The Vanderbilt junior infielder was inadvertently hit in the head with a swung bat, Jan. 18, in the batting cages adjacent to Hawkins Field. Nicolas suffered a mild concussion and broken temporal bones on the right side of his head.

Originally expected to miss the first two to three weeks of the season, Nicolas made his first appearance as a pinch hitter in both the season opener against Old Dominion and the following game against The Citadel.

- PRESEASON NOTES -

Sowers Garners Preseason Attention

Jeremy Sowers has earned second team All-America honors from Baseball America and third team All-America accolades from Louisville Slugger and "Collegiate Baseball" newspaper entering the 2003 season. Baseball America also tabbed him as the third-best sophomore in the country (at any position).

Sowers and Oklahoma left-hander David Purcey, who also earned second-team honors, were the only two sophomore hurlers to receive recognition from the Baseball America listing that included three All-America teams, honoring 15 pitchers. Sowers and Mississippi State junior left-hander Paul Maholm were the only pitchers from the Southeastern Conference represented.

Sowers was one of nine sophomore pitchers and 63 players overall chosen to the three teams selected by Louisville Slugger and "Collegiate Baseball." Sowers, Maholm and LSU senior right-hander Jake Tompkins were the three SEC pitchers honored.

Last year, Sowers was one of 19 starting pitchers nationwide to earn Freshman All-America honors from Louisville Slugger and "Collegiate Baseball." As the Commodores' top pitcher, Sowers went 6-5 while leading Vanderbilt in wins (six), ERA (4.37), innings pitched (101.0), strikeouts (85) and pickoffs (12). His 85 strikeouts tied for sixth-most by SEC pitchers and first among all freshmen hurlers in the league. His strikeout total also ranked third all-time among freshmen pitchers at Vanderbilt. His 101.0 innings pitched set a

Vanderbilt record for freshmen pitchers.

Young 'Dores

The 2003 Vanderbilt Commodore baseball team is mostly young and unproven. Twenty players on the 27-man roster are underclassmen, including nine of the staff's 10 pitchers and six of the nine position players penciled into the lineup. The roster includes only six juniors and one senior.

Just how young are the Commodores? VU tops the SEC in the percentage of underclassmen on its roster.

School	Underclassmen	%
Vanderbilt	20 of 27 players	74.1
Auburn	25 of 37	67.6
Georgia	29 of 43	67.4
Mississippi State	30 of 45	66.7
Tennessee	20 of 31	64.5

Arkansas.....	18 of 35	51.4
Alabama	19 of 38	50.0
Ole Miss	22 of 46	47.8
League Average	276 of 465	59.4

Young Coaching Staff

Not to be outdone, the Commodore coaching staff ranks as one of the youngest in the conference. With an average age of 31.50 years old, the VU coaching staff is the second youngest in the SEC as the 2003 season starts. Only Georgia has a younger staff with an average age of 31.25.

In comparison, Georgia includes head coach David Perno (35), assistants Butch Thompson (32) and David Eckstein (29) and volunteer coach Jason Eller (29).

Three Players Join Team in January

Three Commodores joined the squad in January and are not listed in the 2003 edition of the Vanderbilt media guide.

Sophomore infielder Gil Kim set the single-season record for assists (75) last season at Middlebury (Vermont) while starting all 28 games and hitting .310 with three doubles 12 RBI and 10 stolen bases. At The Lawrenceville School, Kim was named a 2001 Prep School honorable mention and 2000 second team All-State Prep School by the Trentonian. He helped guide his high school to the New Jersey Prep "A" championship as a junior and to a runner up finish as a sophomore. In high school he batted .210 as a senior with a double, five RBI and five stolen bases and hit .367 as a junior with three doubles, 10 RBI and 16 stolen bases.

Junior catcher/infielder Mickey Kropf started 33 of 40 games for the 2002 Ivy League Champion Harvard Crimson. Last season as a sophomore, Kropf batted .263 with seven doubles and nine RBI. He made three errors in 235 chances. Mickey is the younger brother of former Commodore catcher Andy Kropf (1997-2000) who now plays in the Detroit Tigers organization.

Sophomore right-hander Giovanni Seretti went through fall practice as a freshman member of the Duke Blue Devils last season. After sitting out the spring season, he transferred to Vanderbilt. Seretti joined the VU football team prior to 2002 season and was a defensive back on the scout team. As a senior at Loyola High School (Calif.), Seretti posted a 6-3 mark with a 3.02 ERA and 68 strikeouts in 56 innings pitched.

Tough Schedule Awaits Vanderbilt

Thirty-six games against 18 opponents with recent NCAA Tournament berths highlight the 2003 Vanderbilt baseball schedule. More than 65 percent of the Commodores' 55-game schedule consists of opponents that reached either the 2001 or 2002 NCAA Tournament, including four games against 2002 College World Series participants Notre Dame and South Carolina. Six games are scheduled against 2001 CWS participants Georgia and Tennessee. In all, Vanderbilt plays 13 games against teams that finished 2002 ranked among the top 25 in the country.

Vanderbilt Media Services

Press and Photo Credentials

Requests for press and photo credentials should be made in writing on appropriate letterhead at least one week prior to the desired game or series. Requests should be directed to Andre Foushee, Vanderbilt baseball contact. All credentials will be available at media will call located at the front entrance of Hawkins Field.

Interview Policy

All Vanderbilt coaches and players will be available throughout the season for interviews with members of the media. Requests for interviews should be made through the Media Relations office at (615) 322-4121. Post-game interviews with head coach Tim Corbin and requested players may be conducted after a mandatory 10-minute cooling off period.

Practice Policy

Vanderbilt baseball practices are open to the media and the public. Practice starts at 3 p.m. Media are encouraged to arrive at Hawkins Field by 2:00 p.m. to conduct interviews between 2-2:30 p.m. Members of the media are asked to notify the Media Relations office in advance if they play to attend practice.

Parking

Media parking is available inside Gate 2 of the Vanderbilt Football stadium. The entrance to Gate 2 is on Natchez Trace near the corner of Natchez Trace and Jess Neely Drive. Gate 2 is within a short walk along the football stadium concourse to Hawkins Field. Requests to park in this area must be arranged through Vanderbilt Media Relations.
