

#34 Mike Adam

Inside LB - 6-3, 235, Junior (3)
Hometown: Hales Corner, Wisc.

Adam had one start at inside linebacker (vs. Tennessee) but played eight substituting for regular starter Pat Brunner. He finished the season with 23 solo tackles and nine assisted stops.

Best outing was nine-tackle performance against Duke; followed that effort with seven tackles against Florida.

#70 Kenan Arkan

Off. Tackle/Guard - 6-7, 284, Fr. (2)
Hometown: McMurray, Pa.

Arkan played in only five games, and faced a pressure situation when forced to replace another redshirt freshman, Justin Geisinger, at offensive left tackle when Geisinger suffered a fractured ankle vs. Kentucky.

Arkan had his share of difficulties protecting against the Tennessee front, but came back with a good performance in the season finale at Ole Miss.

A native of Pennsylvania, Arkan's father played for the Turkish National Basketball team. A brother, Erol, played football at Iowa State. His grandfather and two great uncles played at San Jose (Calif.) State.

#92 Brett Beard

Nose Tackle - 6-3, 290, Sophomore (3)
Hometown: Birmingham, Ala.

A first-year starter, Beard usually drew double-teams in Vanderbilt's 3-4 alignment. He was the ninth leading tackler with 41 stops, despite playing most of the year with a foot fracture and limit range of shoulder. Injuries limited his effectiveness after starting the season with 17 tackles after two games.

The native of Birmingham, Ala., used a superb conditioning program in the off-season to add valuable size and strength needed on defensive line.

#41 Antuan Bradford

Inside LB - 6-0, 228, Senior (5)
Hometown: Batesville, Miss.

Bradford was the team leader and among the SEC's top five in tackles (123).... He recorded double-digit tackles on eight occasions and at least eight tackles in 10 of 11 games... Co-captain... Voted by teammates as Outstanding Defensive Player... Had 16 tackles vs. South Carolina...

Antuan and his brother, VU sophomore receiver Chris Young, played at South Panola (Miss.) High.

#44 Pat Brunner

Inside Linebacker
6-3, 240, Freshman (2)
Hometown: Cincinnati, Ohio

Brunner, in his first year as inside linebacker, started 10 games for the Commodores. He was named to the Coaches' All-SEC Freshmen Team after the season.

Brunner worked hard during the off-season to work his way into lineup. After failing to make a tackle against MTSU, he was credited with 42 stops over the next five games.

Brunner graduated from the same high school as VU receiver Dan Stricker. Their fathers are partners in the same business.

#55 Jamie Byrum

Center
6-4, 274, Senior (5)
Hometown: Grove City, Ohio

Byrum, a leader on the offensive line and team co-captain, anchored a group that protected Vanderbilt record-setting quarterback Greg Zolman

Until injuries began to deplete the line in game seven, the unit was first in the SEC in fewest sacks allowed.

Jamie has started the Commodores' last 22 games, and was one of two junior captains on this year's team. He knows the offense and what's expected of the line, has good strength and excellent pass blocking techniques. Experience is added value when calling blocking reads at the line of scrimmage. Has shown improvement each year at Vanderbilt.

His younger brother, Eric, was a freshman linebacker and special teams player for the Commodores.

#61 Duncan Cave

Offensive Guard
6-1, 300, Senior (5)
Hometown: Greenville, Tenn.

Perhaps the biggest loss of 2001 came in the second half against South Carolina when Cave, a fifth-year senior, suffered multiple ankle fractures. Prior to his injury, the Commodore line was #1 in the SEC in fewest sacks allowed. Afterward, the team gave up 16 sacks in five games.

Cave is one of the strongest Commodores, having established weightlifting records. He moved into the starting lineup at right guard this year after alternating with Jim May last year at the left guard position.

Cave started his college career at the Naval Academy, playing in the majority of Navy games his freshman year. He entered Vanderbilt after spending time at Walters State (Tenn.) Community College.

#66 Wally Conyers

Defensive End
6-7, 285, Senior (5)
Hometown: Atlanta

Conyers had his most successful season, starting all 11 games at defensive end.

A fifth-year senior, he made at least five tackles in eight games. He also had tackles for lost yardage in six games and added a pair of sacks.

Wally was first team All-State and Atlanta Area Defensive Player of the Year as a senior at Westminister High School in Georgia. Scored 1,400 on SAT, earning academic all-state.

#93 Doyle Crosby
Defensive End - 6-4, 302, Senior (5)
Hometown: Port St. Joe, Fla.

A long-time starter on the defensive line, Crosby had seven tackles against Ole Miss... Best performance of 2001 was against Duke (nine tackles and a sack)... Topped the defensive line in tackles and sacks in 1999 and 2000, and is an effective run stopper... Has good speed for size... Named all-state and District "Player of the Year" by the Florida Athletic Coaches Association as a high school senior.

#35 Chuck Folino
Place kicker - 6-0, 170, Junior (3)
Hometown: Okemos, Mich.

Folino, son of VU secondary coach Dino Folino, alternated with Jimmy Stover with the kicking chores... A walk-on, this was Folino's first year as a placekicker... Made all four PATs in opener, then kicked three straight field goals against Alabama before missing last-minute effort to force overtime... made 12 straight extra points until Kentucky miss... Made three of Vanderbilt's four field goals.

#24 M.J. Garrett
Wide Receiver - 6-3, 205, Junior (3)
Hometown: Old Hickory, Tn.

Garrett opened season with near-record performance against Middle Tennessee, catching eight passes for 219 yards... 73-yard TD catch in opener was the longest play from scrimmage this year for Commodores... suffered separated shoulder in second half of opener... had 54-yard touchdown catch against Duke and 26-yarder for TD vs. Ole Miss... Concluded 2000 season on high note with two-TD performance against Tennessee... Holds nearly every receiving mark at Donelson Christian High School.

#14 Justin Giboney
Free Safety - 6-0, 203, Junior (3)
Hometown: Englewood, Colo.

Giboney was missed the final three games after suffering a torn quad against Florida... Was spectacular against Duke, enticing two key interceptions and making six stops... Was sixth on team in total tackles (59) and second in interceptions (2) despite missing playing time... Was in double-digits for tackles in three games (MTSU, Georgia and Richmond)... Excellent run stopper who earned his starting position midway through 2000... Career-high 16 tackles came against Kentucky in 2000... Missed much of freshman year due to ankle injury. Plans a career in law enforcement.

#66 Pat Green
Off. Tackle - 6-7, 344, Senior (5)
Hometown: Emmaus, Pa.

Second-year starter at right tackle position, responsible for protecting QB Greg Zolman's blind side... Named to Coaches' All-SEC Second Team Offense... Two-time All-SEC Academic Honor Roll... Green allowed just one sack during the 2001 season (vs. Tennessee) and two sacks during his junior and senior seasons... Entering the seventh game, Green and VU line led SEC with fewest sacks allowed (4) before injuries piled up... Towering physical presence who has solid run blocking technique... Led an offensive line that allowed only 15 sacks in 2000... Played as true freshman in 1997, started a game as sophomore, then redshirted in 1999 with an ankle injury... Currently, taking graduate courses at Vanderbilt... Former National Football Foundation Scholar-Athlete... National Honor Society and Quill & Scroll Society member at Emmaus High School.

#21 Ronald Hatcher
Receiver/Return Specialist
5-10, 180, Sophomore (2)
Hometown: Birmingham, Ala.

Hatcher was Vanderbilt's leading kickoff and punt returner... Averaged 20.5 yards on 29 kickoff returns (long of 41 yards) and 7.1 yards on 15 punt returns... Also was sixth leading receiver, catching 10 passes for 117 yards, including 54 yarder against Richmond... Gained four yards on three reverses... Small frame, but shifty with superb speed... Hatcher also plays on the Vanderbilt baseball squad as outfielder and pinch runner.

#71 Justin Geisinger
Offensive Tackle - 6-4, 320, Fr. (2)
Hometown: Pittsburgh, Pa.

Geisinger, a question mark before the season started, was a stalwart on Vanderbilt's offensive line before suffering a season-ending ankle injury against Kentucky... Through six games, the line allowed an SEC-low four sacks of record-breaking quarterback Greg Zolman... Excellent size, quickness and pass protection skills... Was all-district and second team all-state at Mt. Lebanon High School near Pittsburgh where he also was a standout baseball player... Was starting left tackle for Pennsylvania in the prestigious 2000 Big 33 Game pitting all-star teams from Pennsylvania and Ohio High... National Honor Society member and holder of 4.0 GPA... Father, David Geisinger, swam at Penn State.

#47 Hunter Hillenmeyer
Outside LB - 6-4, 236, Junior (3)
Hometown: Nashville, Tenn.

Experienced breakout campaign this year at outside linebacker... Had at least six tackles in first seven games... Accounted for 2.5 sacks... Led team and was one of SEC leaders with three fumble recoveries... Played big in road games at South Carolina and Tennessee... Coaches think he has the athletic talent and intelligence to accomplish the task... Very good in coverage, added strength during off-season, student of the game... In high school, Hillenmeyer graduated in Top 10 percent of class and earned National Honor Society.

#11 Rushen Jones

Cornerback - 6-1, 175, Junior (4)
Hometown: Memphis, Tenn.

Jones rejoined the Commodores for the season finale vs. Ole Miss after missing six games with fractures in his right wrist... Injury happened at practice... Made six tackles, deflected pair of passes and could have intercepted two passes against Ole Miss... Team suffered with Jones out of lineup as opponents averaged 44.8 points per game... Prior to injury, Jones started every game since redshirt freshman year... Tied for team lead in pass deflections (7) last year... Named to SEC All-Freshman team and Third Team Freshman All-American in 1999.

#76 Brian Kovolisky

Off. Guard - 6-7, 271, Freshman (2)
Hometown: Clark, N.J.

Kovolisky entered the Commodore offensive scheme under difficult circumstances, replacing injured Duncan Cave in the middle of South Carolina game... OL coach Bill Laveroni was impressed with Kovolisky's ability to adapt and talent level... Started four games at guard, and played numerous minutes in two others... Steadily improved with experience through final half of season... With effective off-season strength condition, is likely to show vast improvement... Redshirted as freshman, then worked at defensive end during spring drills... Moved back to offensive line during summer.

#23 Harold Lercius

Strong Safety - 5-11, 196, Senior (5)
Hometown: Casselberry, Fla.

Lercius finished year as fourth leading tackler with 63 total stops... His 49 solo tackles was second on the team... Finished season on high note, averaging 7.5 tackles during last four games... Had season-high nine tackles at Florida... Had 34-yard interception return versus South Carolina... Posted team-high of three fumble recoveries in 2001... He has started 35 consecutive games at safety after beginning career as cornerback... Led the secondary in 75 tackles in 2000, third overall on the defensive unit.
