Game 14

Vanderbilt (8-5, 1-1) vs. Kentucky (11-3, 2-0)

8 p.m. (CST) ★ Tuesday, January 14, 2003

Memorial Gym (14,168) ★ Nashville, Tennessee

Last Time Out

Vanderbilt pulled off the upset of No. 4 Alabama, 70-69, Saturday night in front of a raucous 12,514 at Memorial Gym. Junior Matt Freije led the way for the 'Dores as he poured in 19 points.

Vanderbilt opened the game with intensity and aggression as the first few minutes of the game was played at an incredible pace. The Commodores jumped out to an early lead, hitting four of its first five three-point shots.

After being up by 12 points with 3:31 to go in the first half, Vanderbilt ended the first with a 36-30 lead. The Commodores shot a blistering 60 percent from the field and 71 percent from long range. The hot shooting was in part due to Freije's perfect first half where he went 5-5 from the field with two three-pointers.

On the strength of Williams' 23 points and six three-pointers, the Tide battled back in the second half and held a two-point lead with just over 11 minutes remaining.

However, Vanderbilt quickly regained the lead and was able to hold it until the final buzzer. But it wasn't easy.

With a two-point lead and the shot clock running down, Russell Lakey hit a clutch three-point-er with 20 seconds to go to give the Commodores a five-point cushion. Despite Williams hitting two more three-pointers and Kenny Walker making a basket for Alabama in the final 20 seconds, Vanderbilt was able to hang on for the one-point victory because of 4-of-4 free-throw shooting by Scott Hundley and Corey Smith.

Scouting Kentucky

Kentucky, ranked 18th in the AP poll and 19th in the ESPN/USA Today poll as of Sunday, enters the game with a record of 11-3 and winners of five straight after earning a 62-55 home win over South Carolina Saturday night in Lexington, Ky. The Wildcats' three losses this season came against Virginia, Michigan State and Louisville.

Senior guard Keith Bogans leads the team in scoring with 17.7 points per game and is followed by junior guard Gerald Fitch, who is averaging 11.6 points per contest. Junior forward Erik Daniels is Kentucky's leading rebounder with 5.9 rebounds per game, while senior forward Marquis Estill and sophomore forward Chuck Hayes are tied for second with 5.5 boards a game.

Last season, the two schools split with Vanderbilt claiming an 86-73 win over No. 11 Kentucky on Senior Night. The win was the Commodores' first over Kentucky since defeating the No. 1 Wildcats in 1993, ending an 18-game losing skid.

Vanderbilt Versus Ranked Opponents

Vanderbilt improved to 1-3 this season and 10-18 under Kevin Stallings versus ranked opponents after defeating No. 4 Alabama, 70-69. In the 36 games versus ranked opponents leading up to Stallings' arrival (1994-99), VU won just six games.

All-time, the Commodores are now 64-171 against ranked opponents and are now 45-57 versus ranked opponents at home.

Commodores & Tide Find the Bottom of the Net

Vanderbilt and Alabama put on the best shooting performance of any Commodore game this season, shooting a combined 52 percent (52-100). Vanderbilt shot 56.8 percent from the field, which is the third-best mark this season and the best in the past 10 games, while Alabama shot 48.2 percent from the field. Vanderbilt also had tremendous success from three-point range, posting a 61.5 three-point percentage (8-13), which is the second-best mark this season.

The teams also each posted an even better half. The Commodores shot 60 percent (15-25) in the first, while the Crimson Tide shot 57.7 percent (15-26) in the second half.

Lakey Hits Clutch Threes

Vanderbilt junior guard Russell Lakey is beginning to make a habit of hitting the big three-pointer when the Commodores need it most. With Vanderbilt clinging to a two-point lead over No. 4 Alabama Saturday, Lakey stared down a dwindling shot clock and drained a three-pointer that gave VU a five-point lead with 20 seconds remaining.

Earlier this season versus Georgia Southern, it was Lakey's threes that busted the game open for Vanderbilt. Lakey went 4-for-4 on three-pointers in the final 6:08 of the first half to turn a seven-point Commodore lead into a 21-point advantage by the intermission.

Last year at home versus LSU, Lakey again made his long-range presence felt. In his first action after missing six games due to a broken foot, Lakey made just one basket — a three-pointer with 49 seconds remaining that sealed the win for Vanderbilt.

No. 35 is No. 1 Against Top Teams

Matt Freije has proven this season that he will show up for the Commodores in the big games. In four games against Top-25 teams, Freije is averaging 19.5 points and 7.0 rebounds.

Against No. 12 Connecticut, Freije scored a team-high 18 points and grabbed a team-high nine rebounds. At No. 6 Indiana, he once again put the team on back, scoring a team-high 18 points and pulling down a team-high nine rebounds. At No. 6 Notre Dame, Freije scored a season and game-high 23 points and also grabbed six rebounds. Then against No. 4 Alabama, he scored a team-high 19 points on 8-of-10 shooting from the field.

Hundley Gives Vanderbilt Quality Play in Three Straight

Scott Hundley had a good 10 days with solid performances against College of Charleston, at Auburn and against No. 4 Alabama. Against

College of Charleston, he scored six points, which was the most for him since scoring 11 versus Connecticut. Hundley then came back to score nine points at Auburn before recording a season-best 12 points against Alabama on 4-of-6 shooting from the field and a 4-of-5 performance from the charity stripe.

In addition to his scoring, Hundley showed his all-around game against College of Charleston as he tied a career-high with five assists to go along with no turnovers. For the season, he is seventh in the SEC in assist/turnover ratio with 2.27 assists for every turnover.

Terrell & Moore Rank Among SEC's Top Freshmen

Among SEC freshmen, forward Julian Terrell is second in blocks (0.85), fourth in rebounds (4.2), sixth in field goal percentage (.500) and ninth in steals (0.92). Among SEC freshmen, guard Mario Moore is sixth in assists (2.08).

Thornton Continues to Set Scoring Records

Sophomore Brian Thornton set his career high in scoring for the fourth time this season with 23 points at Auburn, including 19 in the second half alone. He got to his record on 10-of-14 shooting from the field and 3-of-4 from the free-throw line, while playing just 22 minutes. He also grabbed six boards.

Entering the season, Thornton's career-best was 17 points. He scored 18 points against Georgia Southern and East Tennessee, 20 points against Tulane and 22 points versus High Point.

Freije Has 1,000-Point Club in Sight

Junior forward Matt Freije is closing in on Vanderbilt's 1,000-Point Club with 978 career points. At his current pace of 16.5 points per game, he will become the 35th player in school history to eclipse the 1,000-point barrier in two games.

The last Commodore to enter this exclusive club was Sam Howard last season. Howard finished his four-year career 32nd on the list with 1,026 points. Vanderbilt's all-time leading scorer is Phil Cox, who scored 1,725 points from 1981 to 1985.

Slowing Down Their Ace

The Vanderbilt defense has had a knack for holding the opponent's top scorer below his season scoring average. Here is a list of the accomplishments of the Commodore defense.

Player	School	Scoring Avg.	Vs. VU
Amir Abdur-Rahim	SE Louisiana	15.9	13
Ricky Ricketts	Alabama A&M	28.0	9
Julius Jenkins	Georgia Southern	22.0	21

Przybyszewski Returns to Scoring Column

In just 13 minutes of action against College of Charleston, David Przybyszewski was 4-of-4 from the field, including a three-pointer, and 1-of-2 from the charity stripe to finish with 10 points. It was his highest point total since scoring 14 points Dec. 9 at Indiana. For Przybyszewski, who despite his 7-1 height is a solid three-point shooter, it was just his fourth try of the season and the first since the Dec. 7 Tulane game.

Przybyszewski has been relatively efficient when he has found his scoring touch this season. He scored 13 points against East Tennessee State on 6-of-7 shooting and also registered a career-high four blocks and grabbed five rebounds. Versus Tulane, Przybyszewski contributed offensively with seven points in just 10 minutes and against Georgia Southern, he scored seven points on 3-of-3 shooting.

Smith Sets Career High, Again

After not reaching double figures in any game last season, sophomore Corey Smith reached double-digits for the fifth time this season with a game-high 17 points against College of Charleston. Smith has set his career best in scoring three times this season with 19 points versus High Point as the current high mark. Previously, Smith had recorded scoring highs against Alabama A&M (13) and Connecticut (14).

Making these accomplishments improbable is that Smith has a hairline fracture in right thumb, which is his shooting hand. He is forced to wear a splint, which is taped into place for every practice and game.

"Actually, I think it is helping my shot," Smith said after the Alabama A&M game. "Because of the wrap on my thumb, I don't put the ball on the palm of my hand which is a bad place for it to be. It also stops my thumb from interfering with my shot."

Terrell Rewarded for Notre Dame Effort

Freshman Julian Terrell earned his first career start against College of Charleston mainly because of what he was able to accomplish in Vanderbilt's game at No. 6 Notre Dame. At Notre Dame, he posted his first double-double with season highs in points (12) and rebounds (10), while also recording a season-high three blocks in just 20 minutes.

Vanderbilt Throws Block Party

With the help of a career-best four blocks from sophomore David Przybyszewski and a career-best two blocks from junior guard Russell Lakey, Vanderbilt recorded nine blocks against High Point. The nine blocks is the most for the Commodores since they recorded nine blocks Nov. 21, 1997 against Memphis.

With 68 blocks this season, Vanderbilt is ranked third in the SEC and has already surpassed last season's mark of 60 blocks. Just three times this season have the Commodores had less than four blocks in a game, while Vanderbilt only twice had more than four blocks in a single contest last season.

Lakey Turns in Solid Performance at Notre Dame

Junior guard Russell Lakey had his second-best statistical game of the season at No. 6 Notre Dame. His 12 points at Notre Dame is second this season to the 15 he scored versus Georgia Southern and his six rebounds tied a season-best mark. And for the second time this season (Alabama A&M) Lakey tied a career-high with five steals.

Lakey, who continues to see time at the shooting guard position, had made a three-pointer in a career-long five consecutive games before going 0-for-5 against College of Charleston. He was 3-of-5 from long range versus Alabama.

Commodores Welcome Back Freije of Old

Junior forward Matt Freije rebounded from a sub-par performance at Michigan to score a season-best and game-high 23 points at No. 6 Notre Dame. He also pulled down six rebounds and added two assists and a steal.

Freije was 7-of-16 from the field and 3-of-7 from three-point range, while hitting 6-of-7 free throws. He had 10 points at the half, but his presence was felt mostly when he helped key the Commodores' comeback attempt that closed a 22-point gap to just six points midway through the second stanza.

Smith Near Perfect From the Charity Stripe

Sophomore Corey Smith doesn't get to the free-throw line a great deal, but he makes it count when he gets there. Smith began the season a perfect 14-of-14 from the charity stripe and is now 25-of-27 after going 3-for-4 versus Alabama. Last season, the Houston native was 25-of-40 (.625) on his free throws.

Commodores Find Three-Point Stroke

After facing some inconsistency from three-point range during the early part of the season, the Commodores have been able to string together six solid performances in which they have not made less than five three-pointers. This comes on the heels of a stretch in which in a four-game span, Vanderbilt went 2-of-15 versus Connecticut, 3-of-15 against Tulane and 1-of-15 at Indiana.

Double-Duty Does

In six of the first 13 games, the same player has been the leading scorer and rebounder for Vanderbilt. Sophomore Brian Thornton has done it four times, including Wednesday at Auburn, while junior Matt Freije has accomplished it twice.

BT Carries Team at Michigan

At Michigan, Brian Thornton posted game-highs with 20 points and eight rebounds and also recorded a career-high four blocks. He did this while playing 35 minutes, which is five minutes more than his previous career high. It was in the first half that he made his biggest impact. After falling behind 10-1, Thornton helped Vanderbilt gain a three-point half-time lead by scoring 14 of the team's final 23 points.

Moore Provides Offensive Spark

Mario Moore finished the Michigan game with a season-best 10 points, making him the only double-figure scorer for Vanderbilt other than Brian Thornton (20). The freshman guard was 4-of-9 from the field and 2-of-5 from three-point range, which are all season highs. He also recorded a positive assist/turnover ratio for the fourth straight game.

Vanderbilt Cuts Down on Turnovers

Vanderbilt had just 10 turnovers against High Point, which is a season low. It is the team's best mark since recording just eight turnovers last season versus Houston in the opening round of the NIT and it ties for the second-best mark since the beginning of last season.

At Auburn, Vanderbilt committed just 11 turnovers with only three of them coming in the second half. The 11 turnovers also is the fewest for Vanderbilt in a loss since the Commodores turned the ball over 11 times at Louisiana Tech in last season's NIT.

Freije Flirts With Double-Doubles

Junior Matt Freije is becoming a player that has the potential to record a double-double every night. This season, he has one double-double with 14 points and 11 boards versus Tulane and came within one rebound of the double-dip against UConn and Indiana. In his career, Freije has had seven games in which he missed a double-double by just one rebound and another two games in which he missed by only two rebounds.

Przybyszewski Shines at Indiana

Sophomore David Przybyszewski had his best game of the season at No. 6 Indiana. He scored a season-high 14 points and also grabbed a season-high seven rebounds against the Hoosiers. In addition to Matt Freije, Przybyszewski was the only double-digit scorer for the Commodores.

Freije Posts Second Career Double-Double

After trying for more than two years, junior forward Matt Freije recorded his second career double-double with 14 points and 11 rebounds against Tulane, while tying a career best with five assists. Freije's first double-double came his freshman season when he scored 22 points and grabbed 11 boards versus Birmingham Southern.

Three-Point Streak Moves Past 500 Games

Vanderbilt continues to be one of only three schools (UNLV & Princeton) to have made a three-point field goal in every game since the shot was introduced for the 1986-87 season. VU's streak stands at 517 games, which is just behind UNLV's streak for the longest in the nation.

Against Indiana, the Commodores came as close as they have in almost seven seasons to not extending the streak. Vanderbilt did not make a three-pointer until the 15:03 mark of the second half and finished just 1-of-15 from long range.

The last time Vanderbilt made just one three-pointer was the 1995-96 season. That season, Vanderbilt went 1-of-7 two times with both games coming against the Florida Gators.

Dores' Dynamic Duo

Junior forward Matt Freije and sophomore forward Brian Thornton have joined forces to lead Vanderbilt early this season as they are the team's top two scorers and rebounders. They alone are responsible for more than 42 percent of the team's scoring and more than 31 percent of the rebounding.

Vanderbilt's Scoring Sources Different This Season

One has to look no further than the stats sheet to see in black and white that Vanderbilt has switched from a perimeter-based offense to more of an inside game.

Media Services

Website

The men's basketball section of the Vanderbilt website has been enhanced to include all of your information needs. Pregame notes can be easily downloaded in PDF format. The website will also contain video clips of players and coaches, updated stats, results and box scores from all the games.

Interviews During the Week

Please contact Brent Ross to schedule interviews during the week. Player interviews will be in the gym 45-60 minutes before practice, while Coach Stallings will be available on a limited basis just before practice.

Media wishing to observe practice are welcome to do so. However, media members are asked to sit in the top two rows on the lower level (in front of the suites). Television and still cameras are only allowed to shoot the first 30 minutes of each practice.

Road Interview Policy

Vanderbilt's locker room will be closed to the media on road trips. Following a cooling off period, Coach Stallings and selected Commodore players will be available outside of the Vanderbilt locker room or in a formal post-game press conference at the discretion of the home SID.

Weekly Teleconference

Coach Stallings also is available twice each week during the conference season via the SEC Coaches' Teleconference. The teleconferences are Mondays and Thursdays, starting Monday Jan. 6 and ending Monday March 10. Coach Stallings will be on from 10 a.m. to 10:07 a.m. Central. Please contact either the Vanderbilt or SEC Media Relations Offices for the teleconference phone number.

Satellite Feeds

Vanderbilt does not provide regularly scheduled satellite feeds for non-televised home games or player and coach interviews.

Photography

Strobe lights may not be installed in Memorial Gym without permission from the media relations office. Also, when using a Vanderbilt photo in a publication, please credit staff photographer Neil Brake.

Game Statistics

The media relations office tracks in-game statistics using StatCrew software. To have an electronic version of the box score emailed, please contact Brent Ross.

A complete postgame book is available after the game and will be distributed in the media interview room and along press row.

Phone/Fax Service

A limited number phone are available for local and calling card calls. Please contact a member of the media relations staff if you need your own phone. A fax machine is also available on press row.

This season, three of the top four scorers are forwards and post players, including Matt Freije (16.5), Brian Thornton (13.7), Corey Smith (9.0) and David Przybyszewski (6.0). Last season, three of the top four scorers were guards, including Chuck Moore (12.7), Brendan Plavich (10.1) and Sam Howard (9.7).

Freije Quiet Leader

Freije quietly continues to be the team leader with 16.5 points per game. He has been Vanderbilt's leading scorer in nine of the 13 contests and the game-high scorer in six games with his high being 23 points at No. 6 Notre Dame.

Dores' Doomsday Defense

Improved defense has been one of the calling cards for this Vanderbilt team. The Commodores limited Alabama A&M to 19.3 percent shooting, Tulane to just 32.8 percent, Southeastern Louisiana to 33.9 percent, Georgia Southern to 36.7 percent and Michigan to 38.5 percent. Last season, VU's opponents shot 45.1 percent from the field.

The Commodores held Alabama A&M to just 13 points in the first 25:12 and just 40 for the game. It was the lowest scoring output for a Commodore opponent since Vanderbilt held Nicholls State to 37 points in an 85-37 victory Dec. 15, 1996. Vanderbilt also limited Tulane to just 21 first-half points and 46 for the game.

Freije Climbs Blocks Chart

Matt Freije's 43 career blocks leaves him five away from the school's top-10 list. His 28 blocks in the 1999-2000 season ranked him as the top freshman and sixth overall in single-season blocks at VU.

Close Call Commodores

This season, Vanderbilt is 1-2 in games decided by five points or less after defeating No. 4 Alabama, 70-69. Last season, the Commodores posted a 7-1 record in the same situations. Under Kevin Stallings, Vanderbilt is 19-10 in games decided by five points or less.

Stallings Reaches 100 Games at Vanderbilt

VU's 81-75 victory over High Point was the 100th game for Kevin Stallings as the Commodores' head coach. Stallings reached the century mark with a 57-43 (.570) record and two trips to the postseason.

Hundley Fond of Playing the Bucs

Junior Scott Hundley must circle the East Tennessee State game when the schedule comes out every season because he always seems to have a solid game against the Buccaneers. In this year's game versus ETSU, Hundley had a then-season-high 11 points on 5-of-8 shooting and also grabbed three rebounds, dished out three assists, blocked two shots and pocketed a steal. At the time, the 11 points were the third-most of his career and the most since scoring 11 points last season versus ETSU (12/22/01).

Vanderbilt Runs Away From the Eagles

On the strength of a 31-10 run to end the first half, the Commodores posted a 96-60 win over Georgia Southern. The 36-point margin of victory is the largest for a Vanderbilt team since defeating Alabama A&M 113-71 (+42) Dec. 30, 1998.

Also, Vanderbilt's 57 first-half points were the most for the Commodores in a half since they scored 60 in the first half against Western Kentucky Dec. 18, 1999. VU went on to defeat WKU 101-77.

Dores Can Still Serve Up Wins on Silver Treys

With all of the preseason talk about Vanderbilt's lack of a perimeter threat, it was hard for some to believe what they saw in the Commodores' 96-60 win over Georgia Southern. VU finished the game 10-of-16 (.625) from three-point range. It was the highest three-point percentage since Vanderbilt hit 65.2 percent (15-23) of its treys Jan. 1, 2000 against Florida.

The Commodores followed that performance two games later with an 8-of-16 (.500) effort from three-point range versus ETSU. The versus No. 8 Alabama, Vanderbilt made 8-of-13 treys to post a 61.5 three-point field goal percentage for the game.

Winning Without Treys

Last season, the lowest number of three-pointers Vanderbilt made in a win was five. This season, VU has won three games when making five treys or less (5 vs. SE La., 4 vs. Ala. A&M, 3 vs. Tulane).

Holwerda Begins With Career Night

Jason Holwerda began his second Commodore season with a bang. Against Southeastern Louisiana, Holwerda recorded career highs in points (12), FGs made (5), FGs attempted (7), 3-pt FGs made (2), 3-pt FGs attempted (4) and tied a career high with five assists.

Vanderbilt Finds Offense in Lakey

Junior guard Russell Lakey put together one of the more solid games of his career against Georgia Southern. Lakey dished out a career-high eight assists and pocketed four steals, while committing no turnovers. Also, Lakey's 15 points, which he scored all in the first half, was just three off his career best. Lakey made them count as he scored 11 points in the final 6:08 to help key Vanderbilt's 31-10 run to close out the first half.

Commodores On Target

Vanderbilt opened the season with an inside game that has not been a part of the Commodore offense for years. One of the by-products of this new philosophy is a high field goal percentage.

Against Southeastern Louisiana, Vanderbilt shot 62 percent (31-50) from the field and an even better 73.1 percent (19-26) in the second half alone. The Commodores still made 5-of-12 (.417) from behind the three-point arc, but it was the 44 points in the paint that won the game.

In the Georgia Southern contest, the Commodores once again found the bottom of the net often. They shot 62.7 percent (37-59) from the field and 62.5 percent (10-16) from three-point range, while scoring 48 points from the paint.

Most recently, Vanderbilt shot 56.8 percent (25-44) from the field versus No. 8 Alabama and 61.5 percent (8-13) from three-point range.

Lineup Merry-Go-Round Stopping

This season, Vanderbilt has started the lineup of Matt Freije, Jason Holwerda, Russell Lakey, Corey Smith and Brian Thornton in 10 of the 13 games, including a stretch of six straight. Last season, Vanderbilt never started the same lineup more than three consecutive games.

During the 2001-2002 season, Vanderbilt started 18 different lineups in 32 games. Freije was the only Commodore to start every game.

Home Sweet Home

Vanderbilt finished the non-conference portion of the regular season in the midst of an impressive streak against non-conference opponents. The Commodores are 58-3 in their last 61 homes games versus non-SEC foes.

Before losing to Connecticut, the Commodores had won 16 of these games in a row since dropping a 77-74 decision to Notre Dame Dec. 2, 2000. The other loss in the stretch was an 83-68 loss to Wake Forest March 14, 2000 in the first round of the NIT.

Skuchas to Redshirt

Vanderbilt freshman Ted Skuchas will redshirt this season. Skuchas, a 6-11, 243-pound center from Audubon, Pa., will sit out this season in an effort to help his long-term development.

The last Commodore to truly redshirt was Sam Lekwauwa in the 1998-99 season. Chuck Moore, who graduated this past spring, was forced to sit out the 1999-00 season after transferring from Seton Hall.

Krueger Leaves Team

Vanderbilt freshman Bryson Krueger has decided to leave Vanderbilt University. Krueger, a 6-6, 183-pound guard from Tempe, Ariz., missed most of the preseason practices because of personal issues and did not play in either exhibition game. He was scheduled to be redshirted this season before deciding to leave the program.

Bulk of Production Returns for Commodores

With the loss of just two starters and four letterwinners overall, the majority of Vanderbilt's production returns for the 2002-2003 season. Led by junior Matt Freije, almost 55 percent of the scoring and almost 64 percent of the rebounding return from this past season. The Commodores also have more than 55 percent of the assists, more than 53 percent of the steals and almost 59 percent of the minutes played returning this fall.

The only area in which less than half of the team's production is not returning is three-point field goals. With the departure of Brendan Plavich, Sam Howard and Chuck Moore, VU returns less than 28 percent of its three-point baskets from last season.

Stallings' Fourth Year Provides Quality Seasons

In his 20 seasons as an assistant and head coach, there have been three times when Kevin Stallings has coached the same team for a fourth consecutive season. As Stallings enters his fourth season at the helm of the Commodores, history provides hope for a successful 2002-2003 Commodore campaign.

In his fourth season as an assistant coach on Gene Keady's staff at Purdue, Stallings helped the Boilermakers to a 22-10 overall record, an 11-7 Big Ten mark and an NCAA Tournament berth.

Stallings' fourth season as an assistant on Roy Williams' staff at Kansas saw the Jayhawks finish 27-5 overall, 11-3 in the Big Eight and advance to the second round of the NCAA Tournament.

In his fourth season as the head coach at Illinois State, Stallings led the Redbirds to a 24-6 overall record, a 14-4 record in the Missouri Valley Conference and a trip to the NCAA Tournament.

Youth Reigns Again for Vanderbilt

Just as they have the past two seasons, the Commodores will be forced to depend on a young and inexperienced group of players to win games. Of the 12 scholarship players on the roster, there are no seniors, three juniors, five sophomores and four freshmen.

Reaching New Heights

This year's VU team has six players that stand 6-8 or taller, including sophomore David Przybyszewski (6-11), freshman Ted Skuchas (6-11), sophomore Martin Schnedlitz (6-10), junior Matt Freije (6-9), freshman Julian Terrell (6-9) and sophomore Brian Thornton (6-8).

The last VU team to have at least six players who stood 6-8 or taller was the 1997-98 squad that advanced to the third round of the NIT. The six players on the 1997-98 squad included Darius Coulibaly (7-0), Dan Langhi (6-11), Austin Bates (6-10), Billy Di Spaltro (6-9), Greg LaPointe (6-9) and Gianni Cugini (6-8).

Vanderbilt Welcomes Two Freshmen With Local Ties

Incoming freshmen Mario Moore and Julian Terrell both come to Vanderbilt from Nashville, continuing a long tradition of home-grown talent for the Commodore men's basketball program.

This is the first time since the 1985-86 season in which more than one incoming freshman has come to Vanderbilt from the same area. That 1985-86 squad actually had two pairs of freshmen from common areas. Barry Booker from Franklin, Tenn., and Sydney Grider from Nashville, Tenn. joined the local team, while Frank Kornet and Chip Rupp joined the Commodores from Lexington, Ky.

Memorial Gym Shines Past Golden Anniversary

The VU basketball teams play their games in a new-look Memorial Gym as a $25 million renovation was completed this past fall. Included in the renovation was a three cross-court practice gym, coaches office suites, new entry plazas and a donor lounge that overlooks the court.

These improvements come on the heels of Phase I of the project, which included aesthetic enhancements to the seating bowl and lobby areas, new lighting and sound systems, private suites and new press row and media work areas.

Vanderbilt on the Tube

Vanderbilt will receive nice exposure this season as 12 of its 27 regular season games will be televised. All of the Commodores' post-season game will be televised as well. Here is a listing of Vanderbilt's 2002-03 television games:

Muller Promoted, Jankovich Leaves

Dan Muller was named an assistant coach after Tim Jankovich left Vanderbilt to take an assistant coach position at Illinois. Jankovich, who joined the Commodores' staff when Stallings was hired in the spring of 1999.

Muller joined the basketball staff for the 2000-01 season and has spent the past two years at the team's administrative assistant. In that role, he was in charge of arranging team travel, supervising player academic progress and a variety of administrative matters.

Quotable

"Kevin loves coaching, and he loves his players. He's a good Xs and Os guy. But most of all, he's a competitor. He loves to compete. Kevin is one of the bright younger coaches in the nation right now. I have tremendous belief in his ability to be extremely successful and continue to move up in the coaching profession."

— Purdue Coach Gene Keady

"Kevin is extremely competitive and this attitude will help bring Vanderbilt back to the level of competing with other great teams in the Southeastern Conference. Vanderbilt has tremendous interest in basketball as well as high academic goals. That combination is truly what Kevin Stallings is looking for."

— Kansas Coach Roy Williams

"He's one of the best basketball minds I've been around. He's very creative and innovative and has a special feel for the game of basketball."

— Southern Illinois Coach Bruce Weber
