Vanderbilt (10-14, 3-10) at S. Carolina (11-13, 4-9)

4:00 p.m. (CST) ★ Saturday, March 1, 2003

The Carolina Center (18,000) ★ Columbia, South Carolina

Last Time Out

Doomed by 30 percent shooting on a night when there seemed to be a lid on the bucket, the Commodores fell to Arkansas, 60-50, Wednesday night in Memorial Gym.

The winter air from outside appeared to creep into Memorial Gym as both teams had trouble finding the goal. After the Commodores trimmed the lead to five points with two minutes to go, Arkansas used the charity stripe to break their five-game losing streak.

Vanderbilt nailed their first two shots from long range to take an early 6-0 lead. As if there was a rule to only shoot three pointers, the Razorbacks' first shots were also good from behind the arc as the Hogs put together a 15-2 run to take a seven point lead.

The story of the first half for Vanderbilt was the inspired play of freshman forward Julian Terrell. Terrell sparked an 11-0 run that gave the Commodores the lead at 27-25.

The game went to halftime tied at 29.

The Hogs stormed out of the locker room and outscored Vanderbilt 14-2 early in the second half. Playing with a 10-point lead for most of the half, Arkansas spread the court and worked the clock to its advantage.

The typically poor shooting Razorbacks, 12th in the SEC in free throw percentage, were able to hang on to steal a tough road win by canning 10-of-12 free-throw attempts down the stretch.

Matt Freije utilized two late three pointers to score a game-high 15 points on the night.

Scouting South Carolina

South Carolina enters the game with an overall record of 11-13 and a 4-9 mark in the SEC after losing to Florida, 96-63, Tuesday night in Gainesville, Fla. The Gamecocks' 84-72 win Feb. 8 at Vanderbilt ignited a four-game winning streak, but they have lost the past two games. The win over the Commodores is South Carolina's lone road victory of the season.

Sophomore Carlos Powell leads the team in scoring with 12.7 points per game and he is followed by senior Chuck Eidson (11.5) and junior Rolando Howell (10.0). Howell leads the team in rebounding with 6.0 boards per game, while Eidson is the squad's top assist man with 4.5 assists per contest.

In Columbia, S.C., South Carolina holds the slim 7-6 advantage between the two teams. Vanderbilt has won two of the past three meetings at South Carolina, including last season's 60-51 Commodore victory.

Lakey Ties Career Assists Mark vs. Arkansas

Junior guard Russell Lakey tied his career-high with eight assists against Arkansas. He also had eight assists Nov. 26 against Georgia Southern. When added to the six assists he posted against Florida, the 14 combined assists is the best two-game total in Lakey's career.

Vanderbilt Playing Nation's Sixth Toughest Schedule

As of Monday, CollegeRPI.com has Vanderbilt's schedule ranked as the sixth toughest in the nation. That ranks VU third in the SEC behind Georgia (1) and Arkansas (3).

This season VU has played 10 games versus ranked foes, including Connecticut (12), Indiana (6), Notre Dame (6), Alabama (4), Kentucky (16), Florida (5), Georgia (15), Mississippi State (23), Georgia (20) and Florida (7).

Commodores' Top Scorer

Matt Freije continues to be the team leader with 17.8 points per game. He has been Vanderbilt's leading scorer in 17 of the 24 contests and the game-high scorer in 12 games with his high being a career-best 31 points against No. 15 Georgia.

Freije has been the Commodores' leading scorer in eight of the past 10 games. The back-to-back High Point and Michigan games are the only time this season Freije has gone more than one game without being Vanderbilt's leading scorer.

NABC Tabs Freije First Team All-District

The National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) has named Vanderbilt's Matt Freije to its Division I First Team for District 7. Selected and voted on by member coaches of the NABC, Freije is one of 150 student-athletes who are now eligible for the NABC Division I All-American Team, which will be announced at the conclusion of this season.

Joining Freije on the District 7 First Team are Kentucky's Keith Bogans, Louisville's Reece Gaines, Tennessee's Ron Slay and Morehead State's Ricky Minard.

Freije is Vanderbilt 20-Point Man

In the past month, Matt Freije has been playing at a torrid pace. He has scored at least 20 points in six of the past nine games, including a career-best four straight games. For the season, Freije has scored at least 20 points in eight games.

Przybyszewski Provides Unexpected Offense

Sophomore center David Przybyszewski matched a season high with his 14 points (Indiana) against No. 7 Florida and he did it in just 12 minutes. He was 6-of-8 from the field and 2-of-3 three from long range.

The 14 points is the first time Przybyszewski has reached double digits since scoring 10 points Jan. 2 against the College of Charleston.

He had made just six three-pointers coming into the Florida game and had not made more than one trey in any single game.

Moore Posts Back-to-Back Solid Performances

Freshman guard Mario Moore's 14 points against No. 7 Florida gave him his first back-to-back double-figure games of the season after scoring 10 points at Georgia. The 14 points is his second-best total for the season and just three points off a season high.

Moore also set or tied seven season highs at home against Florida, including field goals made (5), field goals attempted (14), three-point attempts (9) and minutes (32).

Commodores Make Good at Charity Stripe

Vanderbilt took advantage of its trips to the free-throw line against No. 7 Florida as the Commodores made 18-of-22 (.818) free throws, including making 6-of-6 in the first half. The 81.8 free-throw percentage is VU's best mark during SEC play and is the third-best percentage for the season. Individually, Matt Freije set personal season highs with his 11-of-13 (.846) performance from the charity stripe.

Thornton Leads VU in Scoring & Rebounding vs. Gamecocks

Sophomore forward Brian Thornton recorded game highs Feb. 8 against South Carolina with his 22 points and six rebounds. The 22 points was just one off his career high and the six boards were the most for him since grabbing eight rebounds Jan. 18 at Tennessee.

Thornton came out of the gates strong, scoring the first eight Commodore points and 10 of Vanderbilt's first 14 points. He finished the game 10-of-14 from the field and 2-of-4 from the charity stripe.

This was the first time Thornton had led Vanderbilt in scoring since posting a career-high 23 points Jan. 8 at Auburn. It also snapped a string of five games in which Matt Freije had been VU's leading scorer.

Overtime New for These Commodores

For the first time in more than three years, Vanderbilt found itself playing in overtime as the Commodores and Florida Gators couldn't decide things in regulation. None of the current Commodores had ever played an overtime game at Vanderbilt.

The last time Vanderbilt had played an overtime game was Jan. 22, 2000, when Kentucky defeated the Dores, 81-73, in Nashville. However, it was 11th time in 103 games that Vanderbilt and Florida have been forced to go to overtime.

JT Posts Second Career Double-Double

Freshman Julian Terrell recorded his second career double-double with 13 points and 11 rebounds at No. 20 Georgia. Including his scoring and rebounding totals, Terrell set five career highs and tied another one against the Bulldogs.

Freije Reaching Lofty Heights in SEC Play

Matt Freije has consistently put up solid numbers all season, but he has elevated his play since the start of the SEC season. In SEC action, the junior forward is second in free-throw percentage (.868), second in three-pointers made (2.92) and third in scoring (18.6). Overall, Freije is fourth in scoring (17.8), fourth in free-throw percentage (.800) and fifth in three-pointers made (2.21).

Lakey Joins Career Steals List

Junior guard Russell Lakey's 117 career steals ranks seventh all-time at Vanderbilt. Lakey, who has averaged 1.60 steals per game over his 73-game career, is the quickest ever to reach the school's career steals list. (See charts on page 6)

Freije Joins Career Three-Point Attempts List

Junior forward Matt Freije's 299 career three-point attempts ranks him 10th all-time at Vanderbilt. Also, he is currently nine made three-pointers short of the school's career list. (See charts on page 6)

Moore Closing on Freshman Assists List

Guard Mario Moore also is closing in on a Vanderbilt top-10 list. Moore's 51 assists this season leaves him just seven short of reaching VU's top-10 list for assists by a freshman. (See charts on page 6)

Freije Climbs Blocks Chart

Matt Freije's 48 career blocks leaves him two away from the school's top-10 list. His 28 blocks in the 1999-2000 season ranked him as the top freshman and sixth overall in single-season blocks at VU.

No. 35 is No. 1 Against Top Teams

Matt Freije has proven this season that he will show up for the Commodores in the big games. In 10 games against Top-25 teams, Freije is averaging 19.8 points and 5.1 rebounds.

Against No. 12 Connecticut, Freije scored a team-high 18 points and grabbed a team-high nine rebounds. At No. 6 Indiana, he once again put the team on back, scoring a team-high 18 points and pulling down a team-high nine rebounds.

At No. 6 Notre Dame, Freije scored a game-high 23 points and also grabbed six rebounds. Against No. 4 Alabama, he scored a team-high 19 points and then followed with 15 points versus No. 16 Kentucky.

Freije scored a team-high 21 points at No. 5 Florida and then came back with a career-high 31 points and game-high nine rebounds to lead Vanderbilt to a 94-91 upset win over No. 15 Georgia.

Freije scored a game-high 21 points at No. 23 Mississippi State and eight points at No. 20 Georgia. Most recently, he tallied a game-high 24 points and pulled down five rebounds against No. 7 Florida.

Foul Fest in Athens

Even though Georgia claimed an 83-70 victory over Vanderbilt Feb. 15, what spectators and participants will remember most is the number of fouls called. The Commodores were whistled for a season-high 31 personal fouls plus two more technical fouls. The Bulldogs were called for 28 personal fouls, which is the most for a Vanderbilt opponent this season.

Those fouls led to high free-throw numbers as well. Vanderbilt's 37 free-throw attempts is a season high, while the 24 made was the second-highest of the season. Georgia was 34-of-45 from the charity stripe, which are both season-highs for a Commodore opponent.

Freije Earns Player of the Week Honors

Matt Freije was selected as the SEC Player of the Week after leading the Commodores to wins over No. 15 Georgia and Ole Miss. Freije scored a career-high 31 points and grabbed nine rebounds in Vanderbilt's 94-91 win over Georgia Jan. 29. The junior forward then led Vanderbilt to a 76-68 home victory over Ole Miss Feb. 1. Freije scored a team-high 20 points, pulled down five rebounds and pocketed a career-high five steals versus the Rebels.

This marks the second SEC Player of the Week honor for Freije. He was tabbed SEC Player of the Week last season on January 21, 2002 after scoring a then-career-high 29 points versus Auburn and helping

Freije Moves to 25th in Career Scoring

Junior forward Matt Freije became the 35th member of Vanderbilt's 1,000-Point Club Jan. 18 at Tennessee. Now with 1,191 career points, he has already climbed to No. 25 on the school's career scoring list.

The last Commodore to enter this exclusive club was Sam Howard last season. Howard finished his four-year career 32nd on the list with 1,026 points and is now 33rd. Vanderbilt's all-time leading scorer is Phil Cox, who scored 1,725 points from 1981 to 1985.

Commodores Top Scorers Against Georgia & Ole Miss

In back-to-back games, Vanderbilt put up the most points its opponent had surrendered all season.

The 94 points VU scored against Georgia Jan. 29 topped the previous high of 83 points that Georgia Tech and Gonzaga had scored against the Bulldogs. The 94 points also was the highest VU point total versus an SEC foe since scoring 101 against Georgia March 1, 2000.

The Commodores then scored 76 points on Ole Miss Feb. 1, which topped the previous high of 69 that Evansville had scored against the Rebels. The 76 points also was the most Ole Miss had allowed in 13 games against SEC opponents.

Hundley Makes Most of Opportunity

While Corey Smith was unavailable, Scott Hundley was given more of an opportunity to help the Commodores and he made his mark.

Playing a then-career-high 24 minutes versus Georgia, Hundley scored a then-season-high 14 points, grabbed four rebounds and pocketed a career-best four steals. He also had an 8-of-9 performance from the free-throw line. His 4-of-4 shooting from the charity stripe in the final 10 seconds of the game secured the Vanderbilt victory.

Hundley then turned in an even better effort against Ole Miss despite battling illness throughout the game. He scored a season-best 18 points and pulled down a game-high seven rebounds, while playing a career-high 33 minutes. Again, he was solid at the charity stripe, making 8-of-10 free-throw attempts.

Freije Scores Career-High in Upset of No. 15 Georgia

Junior Matt Freije tallied a career-high 31 points and grabbed nine rebounds in leading Vanderbilt to a 94-91 upset victory over No. 15 Georgia. He is Vanderbilt's first 30-point scorer since Dan Langhi scored 31 points against Georgia March 1, 2000.

Freije finished the game 11-of-15 from the field, including hitting a career-best five three-pointers in eight attempts. He also was 4-of-6 from the free-throw line. Freije scored 19 of his points in the first half on 7-of-10 shooting.

Commodores Find Three-Point Stroke

After facing some inconsistency from three-point range during the early part of the season, the Commodores have rebounded from behind the arc.

In the five games leading up to the Ole Miss contest, VU had made 51.9 percent (42-81) of its three-point shots and had not made less than eight treys in any of those five contests. The Commodores then followed that stretch by making six three-pointers in the next four games. At home against Florida, Vanderbilt knocked down eight three-pointers and then came back with five treys against Arkansas.

Commodore Trio Ranks Among SEC's Top Freshmen

Among SEC freshmen, Julian Terrell is first in blocks (0.83), fifth in rebounds (4.1), fifth in field goal percentage (.500) and 10th in steals

Interviews During the Week

Please contact Brent Ross to schedule interviews during the week. Player interviews will be in the gym 45-60 minutes before practice, while Coach Stallings will be available on a limited basis just before practice.

Media wishing to observe practice are welcome to do so. However, media members are asked to sit in the top two rows on the lower level (in front of the suites). Television and still cameras are only allowed to shoot the first 30 minutes of each practice.

Road Interview Policy

Vanderbilt's locker room will be closed to the media on road trips. Following a cooling off period, Coach Stallings and selected Commodore players will be available outside of the Vanderbilt locker room or in a formal post-game press conference at the discretion of the home SID.

Weekly Teleconference

Coach Stallings also is available twice each week during the conference season via the SEC Coaches' Teleconference. The teleconferences are Mondays and Thursdays, starting Monday Jan. 6 and ending Monday March 10. Coach Stallings will be on from 10 a.m. to 10:07 a.m. Central. Please contact either the Vanderbilt or SEC Media Relations Offices for the teleconference phone number.

Satellite Feeds

Vanderbilt does not provide regularly scheduled satellite feeds for non-televised home games or player and coach interviews.

Photography

Strobe lights may not be installed in Memorial Gym without permission from the media relations office. Also, when using a Vanderbilt photo in a publication, please credit staff photographer Neil Brake.

Game Statistics

The media relations office tracks in-game statistics using StatCrew software. To have an electronic version of the box score emailed, please contact Brent Ross.

A complete postgame book is available after the game and will be distributed in the media interview room and along press row.

Phone/Fax Service

A limited number phone are available for local and calling card calls. Please contact a member of the media relations staff if you need your own phone. A fax machine is also available on press row.

(0.71). Among SEC freshmen, Mario Moore is fifth in assists (2.12) and ninth in scoring (5.3). Among SEC freshmen, Adam Payton is third in three-point field goal percentage (.455).

Slowing Down Their Ace

The Vanderbilt defense has had a knack for holding the opponent's top scorer below his season scoring average. Here is a list of the accomplishments of the Commodore defense.

Deuce Finds Going Easier in Second Half

Sophomore Brian Thornton, who Commodore fans call "Deuce," must like seconds. For the third time during the SEC season, Thornton had a big second half, scoring 11 of his 13 points in the second stanza versus Mississippi State. Thornton had a huge second half against Georgia, scoring all 16 of his points after the intermission. He did much the same thing at Auburn, scoring 19 of his career-high 23 points in the second stanza.

Vanderbilt Takes Down a Top-5 Opponent

Vanderbilt's 70-69 win over No. 4 Alabama Jan. 11 was the team's first victory over a Top-5 opponent since the Commodores beat No. 5 Tennessee Feb. 19, 2000. It also was the highest ranked win for VU since beating No. 4 UCLA Nov. 22, 1995, in the Maui Invitational.

Near Perfection From the Charity Stripe

Sophomore Corey Smith doesn't get to the free-throw line a great deal, but he makes it count when he gets there. Smith began the season a perfect 14-of-14 from the charity stripe and is now 38-of-45 (.844) after going 0-for-2 versus Arkansas. Last season, the Houston native was 25-of-40 (.625) on his free throws.

Matt Freije also has a sterling free-throw mark in SEC play. In league play, Freije is second in the conference with his 86.8 free-throw percentage (46-53). Overall, Freije is fourth in the conference, making 88-of-110 free throws (.800).

Three-Point Streak Moves Past 500 Games

Vanderbilt continues to be one of only three schools (UNLV & Princeton) to have made a three-point field goal in every game since the shot was introduced for the 1986-87 season. VU's streak stands at 528 games, which is just behind UNLV's streak for the longest in the nation.

Against Indiana, the Commodores came as close as they have in almost seven seasons to not extending the streak. Vanderbilt did not make a three-pointer until the 15:03 mark of the second half and finished just 1-of-15 from long range.

The last time Vanderbilt made just one three-pointer was the 1995-96 season. That season, Vanderbilt went 1-of-7 two times with both games coming against the Florida Gators.

Vanderbilt Versus Ranked Opponents

Vanderbilt dropped to 2-8 this season and 11-23 under Kevin Stallings versus ranked opponents after losing to No. 7 Florida, 77-74. In the 36 games versus ranked opponents leading up to Stallings' arrival (1994-99), VU won just six games.

All-time, the Commodores are now 65-176 against ranked opponents. VU is 47-59 all-time at home and 15-109 all-time on the road versus ranked foes.

Super Mario Earns First Start

Freshman Mario Moore earned the first start of his young career Jan.22 at No. 5 Florida, finishing with four points and five assists in 27 minutes. Moore's best game as a Commodore came against No. 16 Kentucky when he scored a team-high and career-best 17 points on the strength of a career-best 4-of-7 three-point shooting effort.

Thornton Continues to Set Scoring Records

Sophomore Brian Thornton set his career high in scoring for the fourth time this season with 23 points at Auburn, including 19 in the second half alone. He got to his record on 10-of-14 shooting from the field and 3-of-4 from the free-throw line, while playing just 22 minutes. He also grabbed six boards.

Entering the season, Thornton's career-best was 17 points. He scored 18 points against Georgia Southern and East Tennessee, 20 points against Tulane and 22 points versus High Point.

Smith Sets Career High, Again

After not reaching double figures in any game last season, sophomore Corey Smith reached double-digits for the seventh time this season with a team-high 14 points at Georgia. Smith has set his career best in scoring three times this season with 19 points versus High Point as the current high mark. Previously, Smith had recorded scoring highs against Alabama A&M (13) and Connecticut (14).

Vanderbilt Throws Block Party

With the help of a career-best four blocks from sophomore David Przybyszewski and a career-best two blocks from junior guard Russell Lakey, Vanderbilt recorded nine blocks against High Point. The nine blocks is the most for the Commodores since they recorded nine blocks

Nov. 21, 1997 against Memphis.

Vanderbilt also registered eight blocks Dec. 4 against ETSU and Wednesday night versus Arkansas.

With 102 blocks this season, Vanderbilt is ranked fifth in the SEC and has surpassed last season's mark of 60 blocks.

Double-Duty Does

Eight times this season the same player has been the leading scorer and rebounder for Vanderbilt. Brian Thornton has done it five times, while Matt Freije has accomplished it three times.

Freije Flirts With Double-Doubles

This season, Matt Freije has one double-double with 14 points and 11 boards versus Tulane and came within one rebound of the double-dip against UConn, Indiana and Georgia. In his career, Freije has had eight games in which he missed a double-double by just one rebound and another two games in which he missed by only two rebounds.

Dores' Dynamic Duo

Matt Freije and Brian Thornton have joined forces to lead Vanderbilt this season as they are the team's top two scorers and rebounders. They alone are responsible for almost 44 percent of the team's scoring and almost 30 percent of the rebounding.

Close Call Commodores

This season, Vanderbilt is 2-4 in games decided by five points or less after losing to No. 7 Florida, 77-74. Last season, the Commodores posted a 7-1 record in the same situations. Under Kevin Stallings, Vanderbilt is 20-12 in games decided by five points or less.

Dores Can Still Serve Up Wins on Silver Treys

Vanderbilt has quieted most of the talk about it's lack of a perimeter threat. Against Georgia Southern, VU finished the game 10-of-16 (.625) from three-point range. It was the highest three-point percentage since Vanderbilt hit 65.2 percent (15-23) of its treys Jan. 1, 2000 against Florida.

For the season, VU has made at least seven three-pointers in nine games. In the five games leading up to the Ole Miss contest, the Commodores made eight treys three times and nine threes in the other two contests.

Commodores On Target

Vanderbilt opened the season with an inside game that has not been a part of the Commodore offense for years. One of the by-products of this new philosophy was a high field goal percentage.

Against Southeastern Louisiana, Vanderbilt shot 62 percent (31-50) from the field and an even better 73.1 percent (19-26) in the second half alone. The Commodores still made 5-of-12 (.417) from behind the three-point arc, but it was the 44 points in the paint that won the game.

In the Georgia Southern contest, the Commodores once again found the bottom of the net often. They shot 62.7 percent (37-59) from the field and 62.5 percent (10-16) from three-point range, while scoring 48 points from the paint.

Most recently, Vanderbilt shot 57.7 percent (30-52) from the field and 56.3 percent (9-16) from long range against No. 15 Georgia. Before that, VU shot 56.8 percent (25-44) from the field and 61.5 percent (8-13) from three-point range versus No. 4 Alabama.

Lineup Merry-Go-Round Stopping

This season, Vanderbilt has started the lineup of Matt Freije, Jason Holwerda, Russell Lakey, Corey Smith and Brian Thornton in 15 of the 24 games, including a stretch of six straight. Last season, Vanderbilt never started the same lineup more than three consecutive games.

During the 2001-2002 season, Vanderbilt started 18 different lineups in 32 games. Freije was the only Commodore to start every game.

SEASON NOTES

Holwerda Gears up for Gators

Sophomore guard Jason Holwerda once again proved he likes to play the Florida Gators. Holwerda broke out of his scoring and shooting slump this season by scoring a career-high 17 points Jan. 22 at No. 5 Florida. He actually had eclipsed his previous high of 12 points when he headed to halftime with 13 points.

In addition to his scoring high, Holwerda also set or tied six other career highs. He was 7-of-9 from the field and 3-of-4 from long range, while also grabbing a team-high six rebounds and dishing out three assists and pocketing a steal.

Of the 13 statistical categories in which career highs are kept, he has set or tied eight of them in three games against Florida. He also averages 8.7 points per game versus the Gators, which is almost five points above his career average.

Tennessee Triple Play

At Tennessee, Matt Freije and Corey Smith tied for game-high honors with 18 points apiece, while Brian Thornton added 16 points and eight rebounds. It was the first time this season the Commodores have had three players score at least 16 points in the same game.

Freije scored all 18 of his points in the second half as he shot 7-of-10 after the intermission. Smith was 4-of-6 from three-point range, which are both career-best marks. He also played a career-high 38 minutes. Thornton also had a second-half surge, scoring 12 points on 6-of-9 shooting in the second period.

Hundley Gives Vanderbilt Quality Play in Three Straight

Scott Hundley had a good 10 days with solid performances against College of Charleston, at Auburn and against No. 4 Alabama. Against College of Charleston, he scored six points, which was the most for him since scoring 11 versus Connecticut. Hundley then came back to score nine points at Auburn before recording a then-season-best 12 points against Alabama on 4-of-6 shooting from the field and a 4-of-5 performance from the charity stripe.

In addition to his scoring, Hundley showed his all-around game against College of Charleston as he tied a career-high with five assists to go along with no turnovers.

Terrell Rewarded for Notre Dame Effort

Freshman Julian Terrell earned his first career start against College of Charleston mainly because of what he was able to accomplish in Vanderbilt's game at No. 6 Notre Dame. At Notre Dame, he posted his first double-double with season highs in points (12) and rebounds (10), while also recording a season-high three blocks in just 20 minutes.

Lakey Turns in Solid Performance at Notre Dame

Junior guard Russell Lakey had his second-best statistical game of the season at No. 6 Notre Dame. His 12 points at Notre Dame is second this season to the 15 he scored versus Georgia Southern and his six rebounds tied a season-best mark. And for the second time this season (Alabama A&M) Lakey tied a career-high with five steals.

Commodores Welcome Back Freije of Old at Notre Dame

Junior forward Matt Freije rebounded from a sub-par performance at Michigan to score a game-high 23 points at No. 6 Notre Dame. He also pulled down six rebounds and added two assists and a steal.

Freije was 7-of-16 from the field and 3-of-7 from three-point range, while hitting 6-of-7 free throws. He had 10 points at the half, but his presence was felt mostly when he helped key the Commodores' comeback attempt that closed a 22-point gap to just six points midway through the second stanza.

BT Carries Team at Michigan

At Michigan, Brian Thornton posted game-highs with 20 points and eight rebounds and also recorded a career-high four blocks. He did this while playing 35 minutes, which is five minutes more than his previous career high. It was in the first half that he made his biggest impact. After falling behind 10-1, Thornton helped Vanderbilt gain a three-point half-time lead by scoring 14 of the team's final 23 points.

Moore Provides Offensive Spark at Michigan

Mario Moore finished the Michigan game with a then-season-best 10 points, making him the only double-figure scorer for Vanderbilt other than Brian Thornton (20). The freshman guard was 4-of-9 from the field and 2-of-5 from three-point range, which are all season highs. He also recorded a positive assist/turnover ratio for the fourth straight game.

Vanderbilt Cuts Down on Turnovers

Vanderbilt had just 10 turnovers against High Point, which is a season low. It is the team's best mark since recording just eight turnovers last season versus Houston in the opening round of the NIT and it ties for the second-best mark since the beginning of last season.

At Auburn, Vanderbilt committed just 11 turnovers with only three of them coming in the second half. In the home overtime game against No. 7 Florida, the Commodores had just 11 turnovers.

Przybyszewski Shines at Indiana

Sophomore David Przybyszewski had his best game of the season at No. 6 Indiana. He scored a season-high 14 points and also grabbed a season-high seven rebounds against the Hoosiers. In addition to Matt Freije, Przybyszewski was the only double-digit scorer for Vanderbilt.

Freije Posts Second Career Double-Double

After trying for more than two years, junior forward Matt Freije recorded his second career double-double with 14 points and 11 rebounds against Tulane, while tying a career best with five assists. Freije's first double-double came his freshman season when he scored 22 points and grabbed 11 boards versus Birmingham Southern.

Dores' Doomsday Defense

The Commodores limited Alabama A&M to 19.3 percent shooting, Tulane to just 32.8 percent, Southeastern Louisiana to 33.9 percent, Georgia Southern to 36.7 percent and Michigan to 38.5 percent. Last season, VU's opponents shot 45.1 percent from the field.

The Commodores held Alabama A&M to just 13 points in the first 25:12 and just 40 for the game. It was the lowest scoring output for a Commodore opponent since Vanderbilt held Nicholls State to 37 points in an 85-37 victory Dec. 15, 1996. Vanderbilt also limited Tulane to just 21 first-half points and 46 for the game.

Przybyszewski Returns to Scoring Column

In just 13 minutes of action against College of Charleston, David Przybyszewski was 4-of-4 from the field, including a three-pointer, and 1-of-2 from the charity stripe to finish with 10 points. It was his highest point total since scoring 14 points Dec. 9 at Indiana. For Przybyszewski, who despite his 7-1 height is a solid three-point shooter, it was just his fourth trey of the season and the first since the Dec. 7 Tulane game.

Przybyszewski has been relatively efficient when he has found his scoring touch this season. He scored 13 points against East Tennessee State on 6-of-7 shooting and also registered a career-high four blocks and grabbed five rebounds. Versus Tulane, Przybyszewski contributed offensively with seven points in just 10 minutes and against Georgia Southern, he scored seven points on 3-of-3 shooting.

Stallings Reaches Coaching Milestones

VU's 81-75 victory over High Point was the 100th game for Kevin Stallings as the Commodores' head coach. Stallings reached the century mark with a 57-43 (.570) record and two trips to the postseason.

The Commodores' game at Georgia was Stallings' 300th game as a head coach. After 300 games, he had a 184-116 career record in six years at Illinois State (123-63) and three-plus years at VU (61-53).

Hundley Fond of Playing the Bucs

Junior Scott Hundley must circle the East Tennessee State game when the schedule comes out every season because he always seems to have a solid game against the Buccaneers. In this year's game versus ETSU, Hundley had a then-season-high 11 points on 5-of-8 shooting and also grabbed three rebounds, dished out three assists, blocked two shots and pocketed a steal. At the time, the 11 points were the third-most of his career and the most since scoring 11 points last season versus ETSU (12/22/01).

Vanderbilt Runs Away From the Eagles

On the strength of a 31-10 run to end the first half, the Commodores posted a 96-60 win over Georgia Southern. The 36-point margin of victory is the largest for a Vanderbilt team since defeating Alabama A&M 113-71 (+42) Dec. 30, 1998.

Also, Vanderbilt's 57 first-half points were the most for the Commodores in a half since they scored 60 in the first half against Western Kentucky Dec. 18, 1999. VU went on to defeat WKU 101-77.

Holwerda Begins Season With a Bang

Jason Holwerda began his second Commodore season with a bang. Against Southeastern Louisiana, Holwerda recorded then-career highs in points (12), FGs made (5), FGs attempted (7), 3-pt FGs made (2), 3-pt FGs attempted (4) and tied a career high with five assists.

Vanderbilt Finds Offense in Lakey

Junior guard Russell Lakey put together one of the more solid games of his career against Georgia Southern. Lakey dished out a career-high eight assists and pocketed four steals, while committing no turnovers. Also, Lakey's 15 points, which he scored all in the first half, was just three off his career best. Lakey made them count as he scored 11 points in the final 6:08 to help key Vanderbilt's 31-10 run to close out the first half.

Home Sweet Home

Vanderbilt finished the non-conference portion of the regular season in the midst of an impressive streak against non-conference opponents. The Commodores are 58-3 in their last 61 homes games versus non-SEC foes.

Before losing to Connecticut, the Commodores had won 16 of these games in a row since dropping a 77-74 decision to Notre Dame Dec. 2, 2000. The other loss in the stretch was an 83-68 loss to Wake Forest March 14, 2000 in the first round of the NIT.

Skuchas to Redshirt

Vanderbilt freshman Ted Skuchas will redshirt this season. Skuchas, a 6-11, 243-pound center from Audubon, Pa., will sit out this season in an effort to help his long-term development.

The last Commodore to truly redshirt was Sam Lekwauwa in the 1998-99 season. Chuck Moore, who graduated this past spring, was forced to sit out the 1999-00 season after transferring from Seton Hall.

Youth Reigns Again for Vanderbilt

Just as they have the past two seasons, the Commodores will be forced to depend on a young and inexperienced group of players to win games. Of the 12 scholarship players on the roster, there are no seniors, three juniors, five sophomores and four freshmen.

Vanderbilt Welcomes Two Freshmen With Local Ties

Incoming freshmen Mario Moore and Julian Terrell both come to Vanderbilt from Nashville, continuing a long tradition of home-grown talent for the Commodore men's basketball program.

This is the first time since the 1985-86 season in which more than one incoming freshman has come to Vanderbilt from the same area. That 1985-86 squad actually had two pairs of freshmen from common areas. Barry Booker from Franklin, Tenn., and Sydney Grider from Nashville, Tenn. joined the local team, while Frank Kornet and Chip Rupp joined the Commodores from Lexington, Ky.

Memorial Gym Shines Past Golden Anniversary

The VU basketball teams play their games in a new-look Memorial Gym as a $25 million renovation was completed this past fall. Included in the renovation was a three cross-court practice gym, coaches office suites, new entry plazas and a donor lounge that overlooks the court.

These improvements come on the heels of Phase I of the project, which included aesthetic enhancements to the seating bowl and lobby areas, new lighting and sound systems, private suites and new press row and media work areas.

Muller Promoted, Jankovich Leaves

Dan Muller was named an assistant coach after Tim Jankovich left Vanderbilt to take an assistant coach position at Illinois. Jankovich, who joined the Commodores' staff when Stallings was hired in the spring of 1999.

Muller joined the basketball staff for the 2000-01 season and has spent the past two years at the team's administrative assistant. In that role, he was in charge of arranging team travel, supervising player academic progress and a variety of administrative matters.

Quotable

"Kevin loves coaching, and he loves his players. He's a good Xs and Os guy. But most of all, he's a competitor. He loves to compete. Kevin is one of the bright younger coaches in the nation right now. I have tremendous belief in his ability to be extremely successful and continue to move up in the coaching profession."

— Purdue Coach Gene Keady

"Kevin is extremely competitive and this attitude will help bring Vanderbilt back to the level of competing with other great teams in the Southeastern Conference. Vanderbilt has tremendous interest in basketball as well as high academic goals. That combination is truly what Kevin Stallings is looking for."

— Kansas Coach Roy Williams

"He's one of the best basketball minds I've been around. He's very creative and innovative and has a special feel for the game of basketball."

— Southern Illinois Coach Bruce Weber

Vanderbilt Record Book

- 7th in career steals with 117 steals
- 3rd in single-season freshman assists with 94 (2000-01)
- 10th in single-season steals with 54 (2000-01)

2002-2003 Notes

- Matched his career high with eight assists against Arkansas (2/26/03). When added to the six assists he posted at home against Florida, the 14 combined assists is the best two-game total in Lakey's career.
- His six assists against Florida (2/22/03) was the second-best mark of the season and the most since recording eight assists Nov. 26 versus Georgia Southern
- At LSU (2/12/03), earned first start since Jan. 18 at Tennessee and led team in assists (3) and steals (4)
- Versus Georgia (1/29/03), was a perfect 3-of-3 from the field, while collecting four assists and three steals to just one turnover
- At Florida (1/22/03) did not start for the first time this season, but still scored 10 points and dished out four assists
- With five assists at Tennessee (1/18/03), led VU for second consecutive game after not doing so in the five previous games
- For just the third time this season he reached double digits with 10 points versus Alabama (1/11/03) on 3-of-7 shooting, including 3-of-5 shooting from the three-point range. Also tied for the team lead with five rebounds.

- Tied a career-high with eight rebounds versus College of Charleston (1/2/03)
- From Tulane to Notre Dame, made a three-pointer in five consecutive games, which is a career-long streak
- Against Notre Dame (12/30/02), set or tied four season highs and two career-best marks
- Recorded a career-high two blocks versus High Point (12/15/02)
- Against ETSU (12/4/02), led the team for the fifth time this season with a game-high five assists
- Had arguably his best game as a Commodore against Georgia Southern (11/26/02), scoring 15 points, dishing out a career-high eight assists and pocketing four steals while committing no turnovers
- Five steals against Alabama A&M (11/24/02) tied a career high and was just three off school record for a game
- Recorded five assists to just two turnovers in 23 minutes of action against SE Louisiana (11/22/02)

Vanderbilt Record Book

•6th in freshman single-season rebounds per game with 4.6

2002-2003 Notes

- With 12 points at LSU (2/12/03), joined Matt Freije as Vanderbilt's only double-digit scorers
- Recorded game highs against South Carolina (2/8/03) with his 22 points and six rebounds. The 22 points was just one off his career high and the six boards were the most for him since grabbing eight rebounds Jan. 18 at Tennessee. He scored the first eight Commodore points and 10 of Vanderbilt's first 14 points.
- Versus Mississippi State (2/5/03), scored 11 of his 13 points in a three-minute span in the second half
- Against Ole Miss (2/1/03), he scored 16 points on 6-of-8 shooting from the field and 4-of-4 shooting from the free-throw line. It was the third time in the past four games he has scored 16 points after reaching double figures just once in the previous five contests.
- Scored all of his 16 points against Georgia (1/29/03) in the second half on the strength of 8-of-10 shooting from the charity stripe
- Came close again to a double-double with 16 points and eight rebounds at Tennessee (1/18/03)
- Versus Kentucky (1/14/03), narrowly missed double-double with eight points and eight rebounds
- At Auburn (1/8/03), scored a career-high 23 points on 10-of-14 shooting and added six rebounds

- At Michigan (12/21/02), led team in scoring for the fourth time in five games with a game-high 20 points and also set a career best with four blocked shots
- Versus High Point (12/15/02), set career highs in scoring (22) and minutes (30), while matching a career best with eight field goals
- Scored a career-high 20 points versus Tulane (12/7/02), while matching career bests with two steals and 29 minutes
- Set or tied a career high in scoring four times in six games from Georgia Southern (11/26/02) to High Point (12/15/02)
- Against ETSU (12/4/02), matched career high with 18 points and chipped in eight boards. Was a perfect 5-of-5 from the field and 4-of-4 from the charity stripe in the first half and finished the game 6-of-8 from both the field and the free-throw line.
- Missed second career double-double versus Georgia Southern (11/26/02), finishing with a career-high 18 points and nine boards in just 19 minutes
- Recorded his fifth career double-digit rebound game with 10 boards against Alabama A&M (11/24/02). He remains the only Commodore to have a double-digit rebound game since the beginning of the 2001-02 season.
- Against Alabama A&M (11/24/02), had his second-consecutive two-block performance
- Versus SE Louisiana (11/22/02), scored 15 points, which is just two points off his career high, while his seven field goals tied a career high
- Also against SE Louisiana (11/22/02), had seven rebounds, two assists, two blocks and a steal in only 20 minutes
