(ITA Ranking) - Current for future opponents

This Week's Matches:

Apr. 5 at Auburn
Apr. 7 at Alabama

Preview: The Commodores take to the road for a pair of conference matches at No. 17 Auburn and No. 21 Alabama. Last season, the Commodores fell 4-3 to Auburn in Nashville and upset the Crimson Tide 4-3 in last season's trip to Tuscaloosa.

Last Weekend: The Commodores recorded their first SEC win of the season, defeating LSU 4-3 Friday at the Currey Tennis Center. With the match tied at 3-3, Josh Tarkoff clinched the win with his three-set win at No. 6 singles. On Sunday, Vanderbilt fell 4-1 to then No. 25 Arkansas.

National Rankings: Vanderbilt enters today's match ranked No. 45 by the ITA in the current rankings. Commodore sophomore Bobby Reynolds is No. 26 this week in the national singles rankings, his highest career ranking. Chad Harris also has his highest career ranking, No. 81. The team of Lewis Smith and Bobby Reynolds entered the doubles rankings this week at No. 48.

Commodores Upset Yellow Jackets: Vanderbilt recorded its fourth win of the year over a ranked opponent last month as they defeated then No. 23 Georgia Tech 5-2 in Nashville. It was their first win over a higher ranked squad this season, after upsetting five higher-ranked teams last year.

Fall Recap: The Commodores competed in six tournaments during the fall and several players had a strong start of the year. Bobby Reynolds advanced to the semifinals of the Southern Intercollegiate and the qualifying round of the All-American Championships before winning the Ole Miss Fall Classic. Chad Harris also advanced to qualifying of the All-American Championships. Reynolds, Harris, and Brown all advanced to the third round of the Region III Championships. Overall, the Commodores went 49-26 in singles play and 14-8 in doubles play.

Strong Fall for Smith and Tarkoff: Sophomore Lewis Smith and junior Josh Tarkoff each had impressive fall seasons for the Commodores. Smith went 8-3 in the fall and matched the number of wins he had during his entire freshman year. Tarkoff had 10 wins in the fall, more than three times his total last year and only three wins shy of setting a new career high for wins in an entire season.

Commodores Open Season at SEC Indoors: Vanderbilt opened the 2002 spring season last week at the SEC Indoor Championships at Kentucky. Bobby Reynolds advanced to the round of 16 and Lewis Smith advanced to the round of 32. In doubles, Reynolds and Chad Harris advanced to the round of 16.

Challenging Schedule Awaits: The Commodores will once again play one of the most challenging schedules in the country this season as 20 of their 22 dual matches will be against teams ranked in the ITA preseason Top 75. Of those 20 opponents, three are ranked in the Top 10, and 12 are ranked in the Top 30. The Commodores will have a chance to play even more dual matches against ranked opponents at events like the SEC Championships.

SEC Once Again Strong: Vanderbilt will once again be competing in one of the strongest conferences in the nation when the SEC season begins. All 12 of the conference's schools are ranked in the preseason Top 75, with three in the Top 5 and 11 in the Top 30. The lowest ranked SEC team in No. 35 nationally. The SEC also has 23 individuals ranked in the Top 110 in singles play and 10 doubles teams ranked in the Top 60.
