

Infant Toddler Video Observation Tool

Record what you actually see or hear:

Write down what questions the interactions the baby has with her mother and the home visitor raise for you:

How do you think it feels to be this little girl?

How would you find out more about how this child is doing with regard to social emotional development?