Directions: Cut out a dozen moths from the classified ads in the newspaper. Use the pattern below. Scatter the moths around a double-page of the classified ads: upside-down, side-ways, etc. Carefully glue the moths to the ads.

When the newspaper is held against the chalkboard, the moths are camouflaged. However, if the newspaper is held up against a window, the missing moths are quite visible.