

center for the study of

RELIGION AND CULTURE

VANDERBILT

Please join us for the third
CSRC University Seminar
of the 2006-2007 academic year:

Summer Reflections in November: Research Findings of the 2006 CSRC Summer Graduate Research Fellows

Thursday, November 30

4:00 – 6:00 PM

123 Buttrick Hall

The CSRC Summer Fellowships support graduate and professional student research projects in religion and culture. The five 2006 CSRC Summer Fellows will present their projects at this seminar.

Lyndi Hewitt

Discursive Strategies of Transnational Feminism: Women's Human Rights vs. Anti-Fundamentalism

Alberto del Pozo Martinez

Hermetic imagination in Latin American short story: Dreaming New Men

Maria Mayo Robbins

'After Such a Holocaust': Boundaries of Forgiveness and Conversion in the Wake of Atrocity

Jacob J. Sauer

Resistance and Religion: Araucanian and Spanish Interaction
During the Contact Period in Southern Chile

Glenn R. Willis

Engaged Buddhism?: The Changing Role of Monastics in Thailand

This Seminar will also include a discussion of the application process for the 2007 Summer Research Fellowships for graduate and professional students. In 2007, the CSRC will offer up to 5 summer fellowships of $4,000 each to support projects in religion and culture. Interested graduate and professional students are encouraged to attend. The deadline for application is January 10, 2007.

Wine and cheese reception to follow.

Center for the Study of Religion and Culture
132 Buttrick Hall | 615-322-8910
www.vanderbilt.edu/CSRC