

GOD IN MUSIC CITY CAPSTONE CONFERENCE & CONCERT

THURSDAY, APRIL 17, 2008

Join us as we culminate our semester-long series with a day-long conference and an evening concert featuring some of Nashville's best-known singer-songwriters. Come network with musicians, clergy, students, and scholars – bring your voice to this vital conversation!

The capstone conference is free and open to the public. To register, go to www.godinmusiccity.org

CONFERENCE SCHEDULE

Vanderbilt Divinity School (411 21st Ave. S)

- 9:00 a.m. Keynote speaker: Dale Cockrell (Professor of Musicology, Blair School of Music)
"This is My Story, This is My Song"
- 10:15 a.m. John McClure (Charles G. Finney Professor of Homiletics, Vanderbilt Divinity School) and Allison Pingree (Director, Vanderbilt Center for Teaching)
"Using Music to Explore and Expand Religious Identity in Teaching and Preaching"
- 11:30 a.m. Lunch and Greg Barz (Associate Professor of Ethnomusicology, Blair School of Music)
"Who are The People who Make God Music in Music City?"
- 1:00 p.m. Vanderbilt Student Research Presentations from God in Music City Undergraduate Seminar
- 2:30 p.m. Michael Rose (Associate Professor of Composition, Blair School of Music)
"Provisional Conversion to Religious 'Truth' Through Music"
- 4:00 p.m. Panel discussion moderated by Robin Jensen
(Luce Chancellor's Professor of the History of Christian Art and Worship, Vanderbilt Divinity School)
"Vanderbilt and the Popular Music Community in Nashville"

CAPSTONE CONCERT

Second Presbyterian Church (3511 Belmont Boulevard)

"Music, Religion, and the South: Where do Songs Come From?"

Tom Kimmel & Friends: Beth Nielsen Chapman, Marshall Chapman,
Danny Flowers, Odessa Settles, Kirby Shelstad, and Lisa Silver

- 7:00 p.m. Meet and greet the artists at Second Presbyterian Church Café
- 7:30 p.m. Concert – free and open to the public