

Association of Indian Economic and Financial Studies
18th Biennial Meeting, June 19-20, 2009
Research and Information Systems for Developing Countries
New Delhi, India

Association of Indian Economic and Financial Studies (AIEFS) in collaboration with Research and Information System for Developing Countries (RIS) is organizing the 18th biennial meeting on June 19-20, 2009 at India Habitat Centre, New Delhi, India. The general theme of the biennial is “Emerging India and the Global Economy”.

Paper proposals should be submitted to Kusum W. Ketkar, Executive Director and Program Chair, AIEFS by March 1, 2009. Program committee will be responsible for selecting papers for presentation. Authors of accepted papers will be informed of the committee’s decision by March 20, 2009. Authors are encouraged to make electronic submissions at kwketkar@hotmail.com

Registration fee: We will have two tier registration fees. Registration fee for participants from South Asia -- Rs. 1,000; and from elsewhere $60.

Expenses: We expect to cover organizational expenses and cost of meals on June 19 and 20 from the registration fees. All the participants will be responsible for their own travel and lodging expenses. We are negotiating with the centrally-located India Habitat Center for discounted room rates. More information on this will be posted later.
