INSTRUCTIONS FOR DECLARING A MAJOR

College of Arts and Science

♦ If you are declaring a single major, fill out two forms, have your major adviser sign both, file one with the department and the other in the Arts and Science Registrar's Office, 311 Kirkland Hall.

♦ If you are declaring a double major, fill out three forms, have both major advisers sign all three, file one with each department and the third in the Arts and Science Registrar's Office, 311 Kirkland Hall.

♦ If you are declaring an interdisciplinary major, in addition to filing the Declaration of Major form(s), you must also complete and file with Dean Bergquist's office, 311 Kirkland Hall, a signed "Contract of Courses" after consultation with the interdisciplinary major adviser. The "Contract of Courses" (blue sheet) is available in 311 Kirkland Hall or can be printed from the A&S web site. For individually created majors, a proposal also must be submitted to the Committee on Individual Programs.

♦ Please note: This form will supersede all other declarations of intent to major. If you previously have declared a major and wish to declare an additional major, you must re-declare your first major and obtain the necessary signatures.
