in the Vanderbilt University Conflict Disclosure System

Introduction

Conflict disclosures must be submitted through the Vanderbilt University Conflict Disclosure System. Below are instructions to help you complete a disclosure, as well as sign a management plan if needed.

For questions, email coi@vanderbilt.edu

For additional resources, visit the COI website.

Process Overview

Creating a New Conflict Disclosure

- 1. Open the Vanderbilt University Conflict Disclosure System.
- 2. Log in with your VUnetID and password.
- 3. Use the navigation pane on the left to confirm that you are on the "Home" screen.
- 4. Look at the section titled "Disclosures I need to complete" and click on the blue button under the "To Do" column. This blue button will say "Fill Out"—or "Finish" if you have previously accessed the disclosure.

 The conflict disclosure form will open. Answer all questions on the form. If you answer "yes" to a question, the form will prompt you to provide more information through additional questions.
 Note: Key terms appear in blue text. Hover your mouse cursor over these terms to see definitions.

Note: If you have disclosed in previous years, the answers will be prepopulated with your most recent responses. Please reread all questions to ensure your answers remain complete and accurate.

6. A "yes" answer to certain questions may prompt you to provide information in a data grid. Select "Update" to enter data. Scroll over to the right to view all fields.

Click "Save" when you have completed the grid. You can make multiple disclosures in one grid by selecting "Add Row" if needed.
