

Passover 2008
at Vanderbilt Hillel

Passover is an important time of the year for celebration at the Ben Schulman Center. It is a holiday bound by familiarity of foods, traditions, and loved ones. While we cannot recreate the smells and sounds of your home, we can provide a warm and welcoming atmosphere.

This year we are making lunches and dinners available throughout the week, and welcome you to share with us at the Schulman Center. The meals are prepared fresh daily by Goldie Shepard, our kosher caterer, and are supervised by Rabbi Saul Strosberg, Hillel's Rabbi in Residence and the Head Rabbi of Congregation Sherith Israel, Nashville's Orthodox synagogue. Goldie has provided wonderful meals during the High Holidays and Shabbats, and we are indebted to her for partially underwriting the cost of these meals.

Once we receive your payment, we will send an e-mail confirmation of registration to the address provided.

Vanderbilt Hillel Presents
Passover 2008

We are very pleased to once again offer our incredible Passover meals catered by Goldie Shepard. For the first time, we are offering Kosher for Passover Lunches and Dinners to Vanderbilt Faculty, Staff, and the Nashville Jewish Community. We are proud to present this opportunity for you to celebrate with us at Vanderbilt Hillel.

We are once again most appreciative to have the support of the University while we work with Vanderbilt Dining for our week-long offerings.

We are also especially grateful to Gay Welch, Director of Religious Life, and to the staff at the Office of Religious Life and Affiliated Ministries.
