

VIOLATION CORRECTION ELIGIBILITY

A non-immigrant alien who has failed to maintain status may apply for a correction of the record or reinstatement for lawful status at the discretion of DOS (Department of State), but only under limited conditions specified in Immigration Regulations.

Reinstatement may be considered if the following can be proved:

- Your violation was due to circumstances beyond your control and if reinstatement were not granted it will cause you unusual hardship.
- You have not knowingly or willfully failed to obtain or maintain required health insurance at all time while in the U.S.
- You were not engaged in unauthorized employment

SUGGESTIONS FOR PERSONAL LETTER

A strong letter should establish convincingly why you are out of status by specifically stating the violation, and the reason you are in violation. If your violation was inadvertent or due to circumstances beyond your control, please state so and explain. State how failure to receive reinstatement approval will affect you. State that you are currently pursuing or intending to pursue a full course of study, and specifically request DOS reinstate you to J-1 status.
