Requests to use our name, logo or photos for activities in your course of work

- Recognized student organizations, faculty and staff can use VU’s name, logos and photos for activities involving their work at VU.
- Approval is not necessary, but please contact Trademark Licensing/Photography with questions about use or if you need assistance with official logos or photos.

Requests to use our name or logo for apparel and other promotional products

- Recognized student organizations, faculty and staff can use VU’s name and logos on apparel and promotional products for activities involving their work at VU.
- Products ordered for personal use, e.g., gifts to family members, are also permissible if ordered through licensed VU vendors. Please visit www.vanderbilt.edu/licensing for more information on merchandise procurement.
- A merchandise order request should be submitted and a PO issued to place the order. Personal orders do not require a PO. A licensed VU vendor must be used to place the order. The vendor will send Trademark Licensing a proof of the order for approval before production begins.

Sponsor logo on licensed promotional products

- If 3 or more sponsors, OK to use VU logo. Less than 2, Trademark Licensing will consult with Conflict of Interest.
- Reviewed by Trademark Licensing. Consult with Conflict of Interest if less than 2 sponsors.

Headshot or requests to use photo(s) taken of faculty or staff member for personal use

- Headshots and other photos that include the faculty or staff member can be used for personal use without restriction. Photos used for commercial use, need to be vetted by Photography and in some instances, our copyright agency, XOS, will execute the use.
- Reviewed by Photography. May be sent to XOS to handle.

New trademark registration request that includes a VU trademark

- Dept. completes the Trademark Questionnaire (www.vanderbilt.edu/licensing). It is reviewed by Trademark Licensing, General Counsel, and Conflict of Interest.
- If approved, Trademark Licensing will send the request to the Provost’s office for final approval. If approved, Trademark licensing will notify the department and send the Trademark Questionnaire to our outside trademark attorney for processing.
- Reviewed by Trademark Licensing, General Counsel, Conflict of Interest, and Provost office.

Staff or faculty member has entered into a partnership with outside company and the staff or faculty member wants to say they work at Vanderbilt University

- If research-related or part of VU’s mission, OK to say they work at Vanderbilt. If used for marketing purposes, then it should be generic e.g., Mr. Davis, professor at a large private university in Tennessee. VU logos cannot be displayed.
- Reviewed by Trademark Licensing with possible consultation with Conflict of Interest.

Staff or faculty personal use for publications

- Handled on a case-by-case basis. If research related, in their field of study or part of VU’s mission, may be able to use name/logo/photo next to employee’s name or in the acknowledgement section.
- Reviewed by Trademark Licensing and Conflict of Interest. Conflict of Interest may contact Department Chair for assistance.

VU is sponsoring an event on campus in collaboration with other companies/universities and wants to use the name and logo to promote the event

- If the outside company is non-profit, it is permissible for the Vanderbilt name and logo to be displayed on these materials. If the company is for-profit, Vanderbilt's name can be used to promote the event, but logo can only be displayed along with the other sponsors if there are at least 3 sponsors.
- Reviewed by Trademark Licensing with possible consultation with Conflict of Interest.

VU is collaborating with other universities and wants to be featured on an external website that features each university’s logo

- Since this is part of our mission, it is OK to list and show VU logo.
- Reviewed by Trademark Licensing.
