

American Airlines Group & Meeting TravelSM. The easy way to manage group travel.

For Vanderbilt University Meetings and Training Seminars

- American Airlines Group & Meeting Travel offers special fares and discounts for 10 or more passengers traveling from various cities to a common destination.
- These discounts are available for travel to and from all markets served by American Airlines, American Eagle and American Connection.
- Multi-meeting agreements are convenient for scheduling frequent meetings and training seminars throughout the year.
- A single meeting agreement can be set up for a minimum of three meetings.
- Additional meetings may be added at a later date.
- A travel window of three days before and three days after is offered in addition to the actual meeting dates.
- Blocked space and deposit are not required.
- You may book with your travel agency and American Airlines Meeting Services Desk and via www.aa.com.
- American Airlines serves more than 250 cities in 40 countries, and with oneworld alliance partners, American can arrange group travel discounts to more than 690 destinations worldwide.
- For more information, contact your travel agency or the American Airlines Group and Meeting Desk at 1-800-221-2255.

