Message from the president:

While the first known settlers in Nashville arrived around 13,000 BC it was in January 2013 when the New York Times declared Nashville an “it” city and that sounded like a good thing to new transplants like me. As then Mayor Dean said at the time, “It’s good to be in Nashville right now.” And four years later, despite a few growing pains, I think it still is good to be in Nashville and thousands of visitors and new and long-term residents agree.

Nashville attained “it” status for many reasons – job growth, a great place for tech start-ups, a growing food scene, music (of all kinds), and a world class university (with which we’re all well acquainted). GQ called it “Nowville” and a five season namesake TV program showcasing the city also helped the star on the map shine a little brighter.

This month at ScholarSips we are celebrating Nashville and all that’s good about it. Come out for some great food (a barbeque buffet), live music, wine, and beer.

A silent auction, donations at the event, and event sponsorships enable each of us to help make this a fantastic opportunity to support our scholarship fund and help raise that last $10,000 that we need to fully endow our scholarship endowment for one scholar. This is the club’s major fund and fun-raiser of the year. I hope to see you there on Friday, February 17 in your plaid flannel, boots, stilettos, denim and diamonds, or whatever is your preferred Nashville party outfit.

Kelly

Next meeting:

Life members recognized at the Annual Business Meeting

Janet Exton grew up on a sheep farm in New Zealand and went to boarding school. She also went to Otago University where she met her husband John. She came to Nashville in 1963 when John was hired by Vanderbilt. Her interests are gourmet cooking, needlework, gardening, reading and travel. She's a member of the Herb Society and volunteer at This and That which raises funds for the St. Lukes Community Center.

Thank you, Angela for organizing the delicious lunch at the Annual Business Meeting.

Roberta Maguire is originally from New Haven, Connecticut where she taught in the Hamden, CT schools and met her husband, Charlie while he was a graduate student in Physics at Yale University. They lived in Berkeley, CA before moving to Vanderbilt in 1975. Roberta became involved with the Vanderbilt Newcomer's Club and then served on the board and as Vice President of the Vanderbilt Woman's Club under President Jennie Mills. She also chaired the Gourmet Club and the Art Group. Always a proponent of the arts in Nashville, she was an active board member of the Nashville Opera Guild and the Nashville Symphony Guild and became a docent at Cheekwood and a volunteer at the Frist and the Symphony. Dedicated to the rights of the mentally ill, she served on the board of the Nashville Alliance for the Mentally Ill. She has a son Evan and a daughter Maria, a pediatrician, who is a graduate of the Vanderbilt Medical School. Her passions include classical music, book club, remodeling houses, travel, photography and kayaking.

Joyce Weingartner became a Life Member in 2017 but could not attend the meeting.

How the Endowment started: In 2007 long-time members Virginia Wolf and Ava Sellers each made substantial donations to the VWC Stapleton/Weaver Scholarship Fund. Their generosity presented a special opportunity for the VWC, and under the wise guidance of then-President Sandy Spitz, these gifts provided the core funds to establish the VWC Endowment. A celebratory luncheon was held at the University Club to honor the visionary support of Virginia and Ava, and this new horizon for the VWC.

In 2013, further evolution occurred when the Board asked Spitz and fellow past-president Amy Christiansen to co-chair a task force of members evaluating the process of awarding the Stapleton/Weaver Scholarship. Under the leadership of then-president Sheila Jensen, the Board and VWC membership voted to change the methodology to an "institutionalized" approach aligned with Vanderbilt's funding standards. Our scholarship is now a four-year commitment to one student (Mason Grow 2015-2019) at a time, enabling the VWC to provide more sustained and substantial support and follow the progress of our recipient. Today, a decade after Ava and

Virginia's generosity, we are zeroing in on the first $100,000 in the Endowment with the hope that we can fund an additional exceptional Vanderbilt student(s) in the years to come.

Getting to know our newcomers . . .

Eleanor Gregory

I was born in Nashville in 1939 and have always lived here. I lived in the Hillsboro and Green Hills area long before the many changes that have now occurred in both places. I was married to the love of my life for 56 years. He passed away August 18, 2016. We have two wonderful sons and six grandchildren and a new granddaughter-in-law. I was employed at St. Thomas West in Administration for 25 years. I retired in 2003. I love all needlework and have served as President of the Cheekwood Chapter of the Embroiderers Guild of America. Last Christmas, our Chapter was honored with a request to provide hand stitched ornaments for three Christmas trees at the Executive Residence. I belong to a wonderful knitting circle and we knit for the homeless and underserved in our community. I have now been warmly welcomed into the new VWC quilting circle meeting at Lynne Siesser's home. I am very excited about this as it is a new skill I hope to accomplish. I have done heirloom sewing when my grandchildren were small but sadly they quickly outgrew my designs. I look forward to contributing to this organization and in time meeting the members.

Gail Molen is originally from Grand Rapids, Michigan. She is a graduate from the university of Michigan School of business, with a dual major in marketing and finance, and worked for IBM as a marketing rep and systems engineer. She has also lived in Geneva, Switzerland for several months.

After becoming a mom she left IBM and became involved in real estate with her husband. Living for 10 years in Vero Beach, FL where they had commercial real estate. After multiple hurricanes they decided to move to Nashville in 2005. They summer in Charlevoix area of northern Michigan and return to Vero as often as they can during the winter.

Gail's interests are: family and friends, gardens, travel, enjoying good restaurants, the arts, Osher lifelong learning classes at Vanderbilt, and just about anything happening at St. George's church.

Her secret indulgence is Ghiradelli 65% bittersweet chocolate bars and her favorite food is anything both healthy and delicious- the citrus kale salad from Food Co. is a good example.

Who are our former VWC presidents?

Betsy Fleetwood

2001-2002

- Originally from Seymour, Indiana, “the” “Small Town,” and home of singer John Mellencamp.
- Received a BS in Nursing from the University of Evansville, IN – worked in adult ICU and maternal/child units in Evansville and Indianapolis, IN.
- Moved to Albuquerque, NM, in 1984, after marriage to her high school sweetheart, Dan, who began his career at Sandia National Laboratories, a Dept. of Energy national security lab.
- Lived in Albuquerque for 15 years, working at UNM Hospital part-time for five years, raising three sons, and serving as an advocate for gifted and talented education in the state of New Mexico. Served as President of the Albuquerque Association for Gifted and Talented Students.
- Moved to Nashville in 1999 when Dan was appointed to a faculty position in the School of Engineering. He now chairs the Department of Electrical Engineering and Computer Science.
- Joined VWC in 1999. Has served in Board or Interest Group positions for most of the time since. Has led the VWC Movie Group for the last seven years.
- Active in the Jane Austen Society of North America, the Daughters of the American Revolution, and enjoying a lot of traveling.
- Some memorable trips include Egypt, Hong Kong/China, France (many times!), London, and most recently, trips to New York City to see “Hamilton” (fabulous!), and a river cruise on the Danube to see the wonderful Christmas markets.
- Continuing to enjoy participating in the Vanderbilt community through the VWC!

Harla Lynn Levitt

2004 -2005

After leaving the warmth of our Nashville and Vanderbilt family, we moved to Los Angeles. The transition away from the Tri Arts book club and the Vanderbilt Woman’s Club was made easier by the fact that our grown children, Sam and Sara, and their respective spouses, Alana and Arturo were living within 30 minutes of us. In addition to enjoying our family time together, I joined a book club, a new synagogue, and began settling into my new life. After the first year, things changed dramatically, but wonderfully. Within six years, I became a grandmother to four of the cutest kids in the world. I have been truly blessed in being able to help my children with my grandchildren, on a daily basis. I have found my new life, and love it. Ed: The Levitts moved to California when Pat became Professor of Pediatrics, W.M. Keck Chair in Neurogenetics; Director of The Neuroscience Graduate Program and Director of The

Developmental Neurogenetics at the Keck School of Medicine of USC. He was the first husband to respond when I tried to track down former presidents no longer living in Nashville. LS

Erratum: In the January newsletter, Cherie Hamilton should have been described as the Trilingual Administrative Assistant to the V.P. not the V.P. Apologies for any confusion. I did not mean to pad her resume. Ed.

"History of Belmont Mansion

The moving spirit behind Belmont Mansion is

Adelicia Hayes Franklin Acklen Cheatham. She was born on March 15, 1817, into a prominent Nashville family. At the age of 22, Adelicia married her first husband, Isaac Franklin, a wealthy businessman and plantation owner who was 28 years her senior. Isaac Franklin and Adelicia had four children together, all of whom died before the age of 11. After seven years of marriage, Isaac Franklin died unexpectedly of a stomach virus while visiting one of his plantations in Louisiana. At his death his estate included: 8,700 acres of cotton plantations in Louisiana; Fairvue, a 2,000-acre farm in Tennessee; more than 50,000 acres of undeveloped land in Texas; stocks and bonds; and 750 slaves. In 1846, at the age of 29, Adelicia Franklin was independently wealthy, worth about $1 million. On May 8, 1849, Adelicia remarried, to Joseph Alexander Smith Acklen, a Mexican War hero and a lawyer from Huntsville, Alabama. Together they built Belmont Mansion (originally named Belle Monte), completing construction in 1853.

Belmont Mansion was built in the style of an Italian villa and was set amidst elaborate gardens."
