President's Message

Winter is here and it's time for fires, hot cocoa, and reading in my home. I hope you are finding ways to fill the start of the year with activities that make you happy.

Thank you, Tracy Stadnick for organizing our speaker, Alice Randall for the annual meeting, I am really looking forward to learning about the hidden history and African roots of country music. What a wonderful way to begin our year. We will also announce an amazing slate for our board for next year and revise our by-laws so they become a reflection of how we run the board.

Our next ScholarSongs event is fast approaching - Sunday February 23rd from 5-8 pm at the Barn at The Loveless Café. A big thank you to Tracy Stadnick and Frannie Brenner and their committees for all their hard work. This is our major fundraiser of the year and I hope to see many of you in attendance. Remember you can bring friends, neighbors, family anyone who would appreciate a fun evening. We will have dinner, dessert and music by the Mockingbird Musicians to go with our silent auction. Invites to come soon.

Vanderbilt Woman's Club is a fun place to participate in many activities I hope to see you all soon. We are an amazing group and it's thanks to every member. Thank you all.

Joy

On a personal note I will miss Dede Clements immensely. She was one of the first people to welcome me into the VWC and always was kind and generous. May her memory be a blessing to all who mourn her passing.

Kippie Leland

As a native Nashvillian I feel part of a dwindling group these days. I did however spend 12 years in Houston, Dallas and Denver. Present day Nashville bears little resemblance to the small town of my youth. I have spent 35 years practicing interior design, 15 of those working in my father's design and antique business where we also imported antiques from England and France. The last twenty years in my own business Leland Interiors. I am a gardener and love the solitude of working in my yard. My reading favorites are English Mysteries both books and on TV. I savor the history of Nashville, The Frist (what a great transition from the Main Post office where I remember going with my mother to buy stamps.), Cheekwood (both the original and with the new improvements), Centennial Park and the Parthenon (original and improved), The Capitol and Civil War history. The town is so rich in history!

Susan D. Sinclair (Robin) is the only child of Bruce Dennison (Jack) and Sue Sinclair. Robin has lived in Nashville, where she grew up, for the past few years. Robin is the proud parent of Mary Susan, who lives in Florida. Robin has taught at many different colleges and universities, including the University of Alabama, the University of Mississippi, and the University of Maryland. She received her Master's degree in English from the University of Mississippi, after holding the University Fellowship in Southern Literature there. She received her Ph.D. in English and American Literature from Duke University and recently received a second Master's degree in Fine Arts from Vanderbilt University. She has been collecting, studying, selling and appraising antiques for many years and has amassed over three hundred hours in appraisal education over the past five years. Her company is Sinclair Consulting and Appraising. She gives seminars in antique silver and had great fun helping a small museum in assessing its decorative arts collection. During her three years of living in Europe, she appraised and sold antiques and art. She makes trips to London and New York for antiques shows and seminars. She is a frequent consultant of antique dealers and collectors, as well as several auction houses. Recently, she has been doing work for insurance companies in resolving questions of value of losses, in addition to her appraisal business. The author of a seminar on collecting and evaluating antique silver, she has also written for The Association of Collectors of Small Silver. She is a member of the Decorative Arts Trust and The Silver Society of London.

VWC Welcomes Women of Color

As the Vanderbilt Woman's Club continues to recruit new members, a mixer was recently held to help connect women of different backgrounds and experiences. On Sunday, November 10, 2019, Angela Bowens, the club's Past President, and former Board member Yolonda Brooks Robinson hosted the event for women of color, which included women of diverse ethnic and professional backgrounds. In preparation for the event, 21 women were invited, with 9 in attendance. Several current Board members showed their support by attending and welcoming the guests. The mixer included refreshments, fellowship and networking, and an overview of the club's history and interest groups. For a personal touch, the club's current members talked about the benefits of joining the club, the sense of community that exist among the members, and what role the club has played in their lives. At the conclusion, four women joined the club with an expectation of more to come! A memorable time was had by all in attendance. Please help us welcome these excited new members when you see them at club events in the future.

VANDERBILT
WOMAN'S CLUB

Dear ScholarSongs Donor,

The Vanderbilt Woman's Club is a historic woman's organization of Vanderbilt University celebrating its 126th year. The Club provides an opportunity for intellectual, cultural, social, and philanthropic activities within the community while supporting and assisting the mission of Vanderbilt University. The Club proudly sponsors the Stapleton/Weaver Scholarship through fundraising efforts.

Each year the club hosts a fundraising event. This year's event called ScholarSongs, will take place the evening of February 23rd at The Loveless Barn from 5 to 8 pm. Our members and guests look forward to our unique silent auction which greatly contributes to the scholarship.

We are seeking donations of locally made items, gift cards, tour tickets, event tickets and memberships for our auction this year. We would be grateful for any contribution. We would like to include your silent auction donation in our listing which will be publicized in the Vanderbilt community.

Vanderbilt University's 501(c)3 number is 62-0476822.

Thank you for helping us continue the Stapleton/Weaver Scholarship.
