President's message

This month brought our biggest Club fundraiser of the year, ScholarSips, on February 5th. What a fabulous Chinese New Year-themed party it was! Hats off (or should I say, "Dǒulǐ off"?) to our co-chairs, Nancy Dwyer and Kelly Chambers, for spearheading this gargantuan effort. Nancy and Kelly led a small army of volunteers to transform the Vanderbilt Central Library Community Room into a Chinese New Year festival, complete with a bamboo-festooned vestibule, hanging lanterns, Chinese paper parasols and fans, and truly outstanding Asian-inspired hors d'oeuvres and desserts.

Our Stapleton/Weaver scholarship recipient, Mason Grow, attended the event and spoke to us about her year so far, thanking VWC members for supporting her education at Vanderbilt. Mason continues to be an involved, hardworking student and a delightful young woman; if you haven't met her yet, I hope you'll find the opportunity to do so at an upcoming event. We are very proud of our Stapleton/Weaver scholar.

Many thanks to a wonderful Sips Planning Committee (Maddy Berezov, Elaine Blake, Dede Clements, Betsy Fleetwood, Kendra Holroyd, Sheila Jensen, Pam Lamp, Faye Novak, Yolonda B. Robinson, Elisabeth Sandberg, Kate Shaw, Lynne Siesser, Elaine Smyth, Sandy Spitz, Aileen Webb, and Randi Young) and to our event volunteers (Elaine Blake, Ray Brasser, Peggy Curci, Joan Hornberger, Kendra Holroyd, Marianne Huffman, Sheila Jensen, Pam King, Ann Krimm, Hannah Krimm, Pam Lamp, Karen Lawrence, Jillian Neal, Faye Novak, Anne Plummer, Kate Shaw, Lynne Siesser, Elisabeth Sandberg, Elaine Smyth, Sandy Spitz, and Randi Young). We couldn't have done it without you!

Looking ahead, please plan to join us for the spring lecture on Tuesday, March 15th at the Brentwood Public Library, and be sure to mark your calendars for Wine Down Wednesday at the Dyer Observatory on April 20th.

I'm looking forward to seeing you soon!

Next meeting: VWC Lecture Series

ScholarSips 2016

The Vanderbilt Woman's Club annual ScholarSips event held on February 5, 2016 was a big success. Proceeds from this wine tasting and silent auction party benefit the VWC Stapleton/Weaver Scholarship fund. The event would not be possible without the volunteer efforts of our ScholarSips Committee, the support and participation of our membership, and the generosity of the Nashville community.

Explorers Save the Dates

Monday, February 29, 2016 at 10:30am

for a tour of the School of Nashville Ballet located at 3630 Redmon Street, Nashville, 37209.

The tour will include watching the Company in technique class, a behind the scenes look into their costume shop and warehouse, and watching rehearsal as the company prepares for Ballet Ball and Layla & Majnun (on the Carmina Burana ticket in May).

Our group will also have the opportunity to save on tickets to Carmina Burana if we decide to purchase on this day.

Lunch will follow at McCabe Pub on Murphy Road - sometimes referred to as the "Cheers" of Nashville.
<http://www.mccabepub.com/>

Wednesday, March 9th at 10am.

We will visit Casa Azafrán, a non-profit collaborative at the gateway to Nashville's International District, started by Conexión Américas. (We met co-founder Renata Soto when she spoke to us at our 2014 holiday luncheon). Casa Azafrán is both a beautiful event space and home to a collective of nonprofits who offer services in education, legal, healthcare and the arts to immigrants, refugees and the community as a whole. We will spend some of our time in their commercial kitchen, Mesal Koma, which was conceived to assist food entrepreneurs – immigrant and native-born – to start and grow their businesses. Mesa is Spanish for "table" and Komal is Kurdish for "community"; everyone is welcome at the table. We will have brunch prepared by Karla Ruiz, one of their vendors, while hearing about the programs of Conexión Américas. The cost will be around $35 per person and the entire visit will last about 2 hours.

Tuesday, May 3rd at 10:00am

A tour of Hundred Oaks Castle and its Gardens - Hundred Oaks Castle is described as a real, fairytale castle tucked away in the hills near Winchester, TN. Construction on the castle began in 1830, and the castle has been owned by a railroad tycoon, a Tennessee governor, and the Paulist Fathers who operated it as a monastery. Most recently it has been restored to life by Nashvillians, P.K., Shirley and Robert Bramlett, of the Kent Bramlett Foundation. The castle is located about 90 miles southeast of Nashville, about 1 1/2 hours drive. The fully guided tour takes approximately 2 hours and the cost is $22 per person for groups of 20+.

We will plan to eat lunch somewhere in the area.

Sewanee Inn at Monteagle has been suggested;
please pass along any ideas you may have. We will plan to carpool.

Guten Tag!

Last year we started a new interest group in the VWC.

The ladies of the Sprechen Sie Deutsch group got started in the spring of 2015. They usually meet once a month, on a Wednesday, from 2 - 4 p.m. at the home of Susanne Riess, who chairs this group. If you like eating delicious desserts, drinking coffee and speaking German, this group is definitely for you. In fact, having cake and coffee in the afternoon is probably the most important meal of the day for Germans.

Come try it out—it's wunderbar!

Getting ready for 'Sips 2016: Kendra Holroyd and Maddy Berezov create a colorful Chinese tableau in the Vandy Central Library Community Room.

An Asian-inspired menu of delicious hors d'oeuvres fueled guests with energy for bidding in the Silent Auction.

Financial planning Chair Elaine Blake spends a moment getting to know our Stapleton/Weaver scholarship recipient, Mason Grow.

The talented Christina Watson provided beautiful music.
