Bermuda
Exclusive Collections & Historic Homes
March 7–11, 2021
Dear Vanderbilt Alumni and Friends,

Only a few hundred miles from Cape Hatteras, Bermuda feels a world away. Its glorious natural beauty has lured artists, including Georgia O’Keeffe and Winslow Homer, to its shores for centuries. This rich creative legacy fuels Bermuda’s vibrant art scene to this day. Please join us next spring for a special four-night program that offers behind-the-scenes access to the island’s historic treasures, pink-sand beaches, botanical gardens, centuries-old houses, and curator-led tours of Bermuda’s most prestigious museums.

Stay at the luxurious Hamilton Princess & Beach Club, the legendary “pink palace” overlooking Hamilton Harbor, where you will be surrounded by its contemporary collection of works by Warhol, Banksy, Hirst, Koons, and other famous artists. Stroll the brick streets of the parish of St. George’s, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, admiring British Colonial homes with the executive director of the St. George’s Foundation. St. George’s is known as the oldest continuously operating town in the Western Hemisphere. Go inside the private vault of the Masterworks Museum of Bermuda Art, joining the founder and curator to discover works by O’Keeffe, Homer, and other icons. Conclude with a spectacular cruise aboard a catamaran, savoring awe-inspiring scenery in the Hamilton Harbor while bonding with friends old and new.

When you book this incredible journey, your reservation deposit will be 100% refundable until final payment is due. Reserve your place now, completely risk free, and you can make your final travel decision closer to the date, based on conditions around the world. Join us to experience Bermuda’s endless splendors just a short flight from America’s East Coast.

Sincerely,

Cary DeWitt Allyn

SUNDAY, MARCH 7: DEPARTURE / BERMUDA
Arrive in Bermuda and transfer to the luxurious Hamilton Princess & Beach Club, known for its impressive art collection. In the early evening, make your way to the private 19th-century home of a Bermudian author and historian to view his extensive collection of treasures. After enjoying cocktails, gardens, and the beautiful sunset, sit down for a special candlelit dinner at Verdmont, an early-18th-century house owned and maintained by the Bermuda National Trust. This elegant Georgian-style home is the perfect backdrop for an evening of wonderful Bermudian cuisine and the sounds of island music.

MONDAY, MARCH 8: BERMUDA
On a private tour with a local curator, admire the Hamilton Princess’ extensive art collection. Displayed throughout the hotel, it includes works by icons such as Andy Warhol, Banksy, Jeff Koons, KAWS, and Yayoi Kusama. Depart for the charming parish of St. George’s, a UNESCO World Heritage Site and the oldest continuously operating town in the Western Hemisphere. Take a walking tour of the town’s charming brick streets and quintessentially British architecture led by the executive director of the St. George’s Foundation. Lunch will be at a stellar local favorite, followed by an opportunity to wander through the rest of the town on your own. Dinner and the evening is at your leisure.

TUESDAY, MARCH 9: BERMUDA
Enjoy a curator-led tour at the Masterworks Museum of Bermuda Art, featuring artwork inspired by or created in Bermuda. Learn about the organization’s journey, from its first modest acquisition to its current collection of more than 1,500 works by famous artists including Homer, O’Keeffe, Hartley, and Demuth. Visit the Bermuda Botanical Gardens, originally opened in 1898. Following lunch, visit Tucker’s Farm to sample artisanal cheeses, meet its charming farmer, and observe his friendly tribe of goats. Stop at Fort Hamilton to enjoy the views of the Hamilton Harbour, stroll through the moat and learn about the cannons, which form the backbone of the island’s naval and military protection. The remainder of the evening is at leisure to relax at the hotel or enjoy dinner on your own at a local restaurant.
WEDNESDAY, MARCH 10: BERMUDA
Travel by ferry to visit the Royal Naval Dockyard, built in the 19th century and once Britain’s largest naval base outside the United Kingdom. Today it serves as a hub of the Bermudian arts scene, and there we will visit the Bermuda Arts Center to meet with local artists. Discover the National Museum on an exclusive tour with one of its board members, experiencing fine marine artworks and a mural painted by Bermudian artist Graham Foster. Following lunch, board a catamaran for a cocktail cruise back to the Hamilton Princess. Our farewell dinner is at the 175-year-old Royal Bermuda Yacht Club, where we will also meet the club historian.

FRIDAY, MARCH 11: BERMUDA / RETURN
After breakfast, depart for your flights home.
