The Passion Play of Oberammergau

Nearly 400 years ago, the ruling council of Oberammergau made a valiant effort to safeguard their hamlet against the Black Death plague. They sought deliverance by performing a Passion Play on a modest stage built over the graves of plague victims. Surviving villagers made a solemn vow to reenact the passion of Christ every 10 years in perpetuity as an act of gratitude and remembrance.

Through the centuries, Oberammergau’s Passion Play has risen in prestige, drawing pilgrims from around the world. Performed on one of the world’s largest stages, the Passionspielhaus, the play now features a cast of nearly 2,000 village residents transformed from Bavarian farmers and townsfolk into an array of Roman centurions, Jewish villagers and other Biblical characters. The tradition lives on, respected around the globe as the world’s most historic and spectacular Passion Play.
