Dear Vanderbilt Alumni and Friends:

Formed over millennia by underwater volcanic activity, Tahiti and other celebrated Society Islands—notably Mo’orea, Rarotonga, Tahaa, Bora Bora, and Huahine—distill the essence and allure of the South Pacific. During our unforgettable, nine-night land and sea adventure, explore the spectacular coastlines, vibrant coral reefs, lush interiors, and cultural mystique of this unspoiled paradise.

Begin your journey with two nights in colorful Pape’ete, Tahiti, before embarking on a seven-night cruise under the billowing white sails of the five-star, 74-stateroom, small ship Wind Spirit. Specially designed to cruise these crystal-clear waters, our intimate ship provides extensive luxury amenities, including complimentary use of kayaking and snorkeling equipment.

Discover French Polynesia’s unique history, environment, and culture on this unparalleled voyage through the idyllic landscapes of the storied South Pacific. Enjoy an abundance of exquisite scenery while swimming or snorkeling in sparkling blue waters with stingrays, manta rays, lagoon sharks, and colorful fish.

Round-trip air is included from Los Angeles and low air add-ons are available from select U.S. cities. Shipboard gratuities are also included. Book now while space and early booking savings are still available.

Sincerely,

Cary DeWitt Allyn
Director, Vanderbilt Travel Program

‡ Included economy-class air from Los Angeles and Low Air Add-Ons may be offered only until November 11, 2022, have limited availability, are not guaranteed and are non-refundable once purchased.
The Lure of the South Pacific

The turquoise waters, wind-sculpted peaks, and white-sand beaches of French Polynesia have captivated visitors for centuries. A dreamscape long before explorers Captain James Cook, Samuel Wallis, and Louis de Bougainville fell under their spell in the 1700s, this fabled earthly paradise was among the last places in the world to be settled by humans. Today, Tahitian folklore traditions and mythology are entwined with the legacy of Mā’ohi ancestors, ancient Samoan mariners, and European explorers who used the stars, sun, tides, and flight patterns of birds to navigate the Pacific Ocean to these idyllic shores. Seared into the collective consciousness by the paintings of Post-Impressionist artist Paul Gauguin, this fantasia of 118 islands and atolls remains steeped in the legends of a polytheistic society. The French Polynesian reverence for nature coexists with time-honored agrarian traditions while the intersection of the material and spirit world is revealed in esoteric marae (ceremonial sites). Extolled for their mesmerizing landscapes and rich cultural traditions, the mystical pull of these serene isles is impossible to resist.
Day 1 and Day 2
Check into the five-star INTERCONTINENTAL TAHITI and enjoy time at leisure. You may opt to explore Pape’ete on your own. Attend a welcome reception at the hotel this evening.

Day 3
Tour Tahiti’s scenic West Coast and visit the Mara’a Grotto with its freshwater pools and small caves. Walk through the sacred ‘Arahurahu site and the Spring Garden of Vaipahi—a tranquil haven where precious wood and tropical flowers can be seen. Attend the Captain’s Welcome Reception on board.

Mo’orea
Day 4
Enjoy an optional excursion that includes a scenic drive through a landscape of ancient volcanic peaks and stop at Belvedere Point for views of Mount Rotu’i. Visit the Richard B. Gump Pacific Research Station and Atitia Outreach Center and then attend an onboard lecture by naturalist Frank Murphy from the Gump Research Station. Your afternoon is at leisure with opportunities to snorkel.

Pape’ete/transfer to the ship
Day 3
Tour Tahiti’s scenic West Coast and visit the Mara’a Grotto with its freshwater pools and small caves. Walk through the sacred ‘Arahurahu site and the Spring Garden of Vaipahi—a tranquil haven where precious wood and tropical flowers can be seen. Attend the Captain’s Welcome Reception on board.

Ra’iatea
Day 5
Opt to visit French Polynesia’s only UNESCO World Heritage Site, the well-preserved marae complex of Taputapuata. End the evening with a barbecue dinner on deck under what Matisse once described as an “ash-blue sky alive with stars.”

Bora Bora
Day 7
Experience island life on the Bora Bora discovery program with an optional tour on an open-air truck to discover relics left behind by the U.S. military in WWII—all while admiring the colors of Bora Bora’s famous lagoon. Or, enjoy a day at leisure on board the ship.

Huahine
Day 8
Opt to ride on an open-air truck between the ocean and a woodland of towering mape trees to the settlement of Maeva—the ancient religious center of Huahine-Nui where you will see more than ten 16th century marae as well as former homes and fortification walls. After a day at leisure, attend the Captain’s Farewell Reception.

Pape’ete, Tahiti/ Disembark ship
Day 9
Explore Tahiti’s East Coast with a visit to the former home of American author James Norman Hall, best known for Mutiny on the Bounty, and see Point Venus—named for the observatory Captain Cook established here in 1769. Day-room accommodations are open to you in the INTERCONTINENTAL TAHITI. Continue to the airport for your return flight home.
