Renaissance Art
Contemporary Italy and Life in Florence

UNESCO World Heritage
1. Historic Center of Florence
2. Historic Center of San Gimignano
3. Historic Center of Siena

San Gimignano and Chianti. Chianti is a dreamy vision of quiet back roads, lovely hillside towns, woodlands and, of course, vineyards. Travel today to the hill town of San Gimignano, a UNESCO World Heritage site that boasts 14 medieval tower-houses and a wealth of wonderfully preserved squares, palaces and fountains. Next, a local chef will show you how to cook like Tuscans do, then you get to enjoy the mouthwatering results for lunch! Afterward, visit Castello di Monsanto, built in 1750. Taste wines produced from handpicked Sangiovese, Canaiolo and other grapes.

Accademia Visit. With a private guide, tour this famed Florentine museum that houses Michelangelo’s incomparable statue of David, as well as paintings and sculptures by legendary artists and an exquisite group of rare, antique musical instruments.

Uffizi Gallery. Follow the evolution of Italian art from the 13th to the 16th centuries in the Uffizi’s grand halls, which contain some of the world’s most acclaimed masterpieces.

Colle di Val d’Elsa and Siena. In the Elsa River valley, meander on Colle’s small lanes and delight in its noble houses and medieval tower houses. After lunch in the area, journey to Siena, bathed in a rose-pink glow and remarkably unchanged since the Middle Ages, that shines with gorgeous Gothic gems like its dramatic, striped cathedral which you will visit. Step into one of Europe’s finest piazzas, the shell-shaped Piazza del Campo, and learn about its importance to the city. Pause by the Gaia, or Joyful, fountain to see its pretty, bas-relief sculptures.

AHI Sustainability Promise
We strive to make a positive, purposeful impact in the communities we visit, whenever possible.

Environmental Impact | Thoughtful choices to minimize our environmental footprint: eco-friendly transportation, guided walks in lieu of bus tours and less plastic waste.

Social Impact | Ongoing initiatives to support local businesses that employ and benefit people in the community. Curating meaningful experiences by staying in intimately sized locales instead of cities affected by overtourism.

Economic Impact | Community-based tourism using expert local guides and lecturers, plus program scheduling during quieter, “shoulder seasons.”

AHI Travel Expertise
Passenger Service Representative | Helps with everything from arranging flights to fulfilling special requests.
Travel Director | Manages all details to ensure a memorable trip.
Travel information | Prepares you fully for your journey.
Expert local guides and lecturers | Provide friendly, knowledgeable service and share their passion for their country.

Let us arrange your flights!

AHI FlexAir | Our personalized air program features transfers, assistance and flexibility.
