Dear Vanderbilt Alumni and Friends,

The fortunes and histories of the Canary Islands, Northern Africa, and the Iberian Peninsula have been intertwined for centuries. On a thrilling two-week voyage aboard the intimate Sea Spirit, sail from the Canaries to Madeira and onwards to Morocco, Spain, and Portugal.

Begin on the Canary island of Tenerife to stroll its UNESCO-listed historic quarter and chat with an architecture expert about its famed Spanish colonial buildings. Sail Sea Spirit to Gran Canaria, Columbus’ last stop before departing for the New World, to view his namesake church. On nearby Lanzarote, marvel at artist César Manrique’s transformation of an entire island into his canvas. Step ashore on Portuguese Madeira to savor a sip of its eponymous wine.

Morocco awaits, with its excellent museum collections, lush gardens, and opulent mosques in Marrakesh, Casablanca, and Rabat. A highlight in Marrakesh will be a special tour of superb art collections in a rarely visited former palace. Sail through the famous Strait to discover a vast underground fortress in Gibraltar. After Sea Spirit calls in Spain, you may opt for an exploration of the ancient city of Cádiz, or enjoy an excursion to Seville for full access to the world’s largest Gothic cathedral. This culturally enriching voyage will conclude in Portugal’s gorgeous Algarve, home to the Museu de Portimão, a former sardine cannery that is now an award-winning museum.

We’re honored to travel in the company of members of The Metropolitan Museum of Art and The National Trust for Historic Preservation and alumni of Harvard, the University of Chicago, and Yale. An optional one-night postlude in beautiful Lisbon is available.

I hope you will join fellow alumni and friends on this fascinating journey.

Sincerely,

Cary DeWitt Allyn
