Dear Vanderbilt Alumni and Friends:

Buon giorno!

One of the world’s most captivating destinations, northern Italy’s fabled Lake District beckons with its sublime landscapes of shimmering glacial waters, soaring Alpine peaks, charming waterfronts and bijou towns overflowing with Mediterranean flora. The region’s ancient history echoes through towns embellished with lavish Renaissance and Gothic architecture and imbued with the distinct bella figura Italian style that has inspired poets, composers, musicians, artists and philosophers for centuries.

Join our small group of ravelers in the quintessentially Italian città di Como—your picturesque “home” for a full week—for this one-of-a-kind Village Life® soggiorno, an exceptional way to experience the authentic delights and genteel ambiance that have lured visitors to the beautiful regions of Lombardy and Piedmont since the days of the “Grand Tour.” Our carefully designed, expert-guided excursions explore the artistic and architectural treasures commissioned by Roman aristocrats, medieval lords and Renaissance princes, including a specially arranged viewing of Leonardo da Vinci’s renowned masterpiece, The Last Supper, in the UNESCO World Heritage-designated Santa Maria delle Grazie. Trace the legacy of Milan’s outstanding artistic heritage, visit the impossibly enchanting town of Bellagio and the romantic Borromean Island of Isola Bella, crowned by the baroque Palazzo Borromeo, famed for its lavish ornamentation, priceless artworks and terraced Italianate gardens.

Enriching presentations and the exclusive Village Life® Forum, featuring local residents, offer you personal perspectives on Lombardy’s cultural heritage and contemporary life. You will taste the bold flavors of northern Italy’s acclaimed cuisine and Lombardy’s acclaimed sparkling wines.

Your accommodations for this comprehensive program are in the heart of charismatic Como in the ideally located, lakeside PALACE HOTEL, just steps away from the city’s Gothic-style Duomo. This historic hotel overlooks stunning Lake Como and welcomes guests with warm Italian hospitality and impeccable service.

Indulge in the refined traditions of the Italian Lake District and join us on this unique program, where you unpack only once in one of Italy’s loveliest settings. It has sold out every time it has been offered, so I encourage you to book now while Early Booking Savings and space are still available.

Como
Founded by the Romans in 196 B.C., Como has been internationally known for its silk-weaving industry since silkworms were first imported here in the 14th century. At one time, Como was the largest European silk producer—dyeing, weaving and designing fabrics to be shipped to the fashion houses of Milan, Paris and London. Enjoy ideally located accommodations for the entire week in the Palace Hotel on the shores of Lake Como and in the centro storico (old town) of this timeless Italian città. Stroll beside medieval towers and walls, Renaissance palaces and churches, neoclassical 19th-century villas and small family-owned negozi (shops) leading to the Piazza Cavour and the tranquil lakeside promenade. See the magnificent Duomo di Como, considered the most beautiful cathedral in Lombardy, which took nearly 400 years to complete, reflecting a seamless blend of Gothic and Renaissance styles. Visit the 12th-century Romanesque Basilica di San Fedele, with stunning frescoed naves and apses and an exquisitely sculptured choir, carved by Comacini masters. Peruse the fresh fruit and vegetables in the tri-weekly outdoor market, a local tradition for centuries.

Cultural Enrichments: A local scholar of Como from the Roman era to the present, and resident art historian Giuseppina Lucini will present private, expert lectures. During the exclusive Village Life® Forum, residents will discuss contemporary life in the dazzling and historic Italian Lake District. Savor the delights of a northern Italian dinner in a local ristorante.

Lago Maggiore
Beloved by Lombardy’s nobility, Lake Maggiore is Italy’s second-largest lake and a natural boundary between the regions of Lombardy and Piedmont. A close rival to Lake Como as the most spectacular in the Lake District, Lake Maggiore’s mild climate allows gardens to grow rare and exotic plants beneath the high Alps, particularly on the remarkable Borromean Islands. Enjoy a private boat cruise amidst the charming islands that inspired Flaubert, Wagner and Goethe.

Borromean Islands
Cruise among Lake Maggiore’s enticing islands, graced with elegant villas and striking natural beauty. Isola Bella, Isola di San Giovanni, Isola Madre and Isola dei Pescatori are collectively known as the Borromean Islands, named after the powerful Borromeos, a dynasty of counts, cardinals and warriors. During the 16th century, swathes of what is now North Central Italy were known as the Borromeo State, and the family wielded absolute political and military power.

Cultural Enrichment: Visit the crown jewel of the Borromean archipelago, Isola Bella, entirely occupied by the 17th-century Palazzo Borromeo. Walk through its splendid Italianate gardens, a baroque botanical masterpiece ablaze with roses, gardenias, azaleas and rhododendrons, described by Edith Wharton as a work of “Renaissance poetry.” Commissioned by Count Carlo Borromeo III in 1632, this secluded Baroque retreat is dedicated to his wife, Isabella, and its extravagant halls and opulent salons are filled with priceless masterpieces by old masters such as Rubens, Titian and Van Dyck. See the Sala di Napoleone, where Napoleon and Josephine slept in 1797 and the unforgettable grotto, decorated entirely with marble- and lava-studded mosaics of marine life.

Stresa
An 18th- and 19th-century “Grand Tour” of Europe was considered incomplete without a visit to Stresa to experience its spectacular mountain views, tropical gardens and the sparkling waters of Lake Maggiore. The quintessential dolce vita town, Stresa’s inviting piazzas, cobblestone streets and lakeside promenade are dotted with belle époque mansions. A young Ernest Hemingway, recuperating in Stresa during World War I, was inspired to make it the setting for Frederic Henry and Catherine Barkley’s famed reunion in A Farewell to Arms.

Milan
The recognized capital of the design and fashion worlds, Milan has an ancient cultural heritage that blends its ornate palaces, Gothic churches and venerable museums with vibrant contemporary life, a wealth of modern art, an abundance of haute cuisine and outstanding operatic traditions. Visit Milan’s exquisite late-Gothic Duomo, which dates to 1386, and the world-famous Teatro alla Scala opera house, a neoclassical jewel of sumptuous gilt boxes and glittering chandeliers, founded in 1778 by Empress Maria Theresa of Austria.

Cultural Enrichment:
By special arrangement, visit the UNESCO World Heritage site of Santa Maria delle Grazie to experience the enduring genius of da Vinci’s masterpiece, The Last Supper.

Lago di Como
Composer Franz Liszt romanticized, “When you write the story of two happy lovers, place them on the shores of Lake Como.”

Cruise by private boat across the sparkling waters of Italy’s deepest—and perhaps most spectacular—lake while learning more about its fascinating history and allure. Survey the quaint coastal village of Bellagio, a favorite retreat since the time of the Caesars, and the grand Renaissance villas, built on the slopes of snowcapped mountains.

Villa del Balbianello
Across Lake Como from Bellagio is the magnificent Villa del Balbianello and its unique terraced gardens. Built in 1787 by Cardinal Angelo Maria Durini, this consummate Italian lake villa was renovated in the early 20th century by an American veteran of World War I then purchased by Italy’s first explorer to summit Mt. Everest, Guido Monzino, who bequeathed it to the Italian National Trust. A paragon of authentic Italian luxury, the villa is a repository of 18th-century French and English furniture and an exquisite collection of Monzino’s Chinese, pre-Columbian and African art.

Experience the beauty of Bellagio, the “Pearl of Lake Como,” beloved by many for the colorful houses, exquisite gardens and lovely villas set against a scenic Alpine backdrop.

Admire the 14th-century Piazza del Duomo which marks Milan’s geographic, social and cultural heart.
Bellagio
Perched on a promontory punctuated by stands of cypress trees, Bellagio is one of the Italian Lake District’s most internationally well-known communes. In the 18th and 19th centuries, Milanese nobility flocked here to build elaborate villas and cultivate subtropical gardens. Medieval alleyways draped with bougainvillea wind above an idyllic waterfront promenade that affords spectacular Alpine vistas.

Lago d’Orta
Serene Lake Orta, nestled in the captivating Piedmont region of northwestern Italy, is the Lake District’s best-kept secret. A medieval mist rises above Lake Orta’s forested shores which are imbued with an ethereal stillness. Enjoy a walking tour of Orta San Giulio’s medieval village center, a cinematic tableau of gracefully aging ochre-hued houses woven with arabesques of decorative wrought-iron and flamboyant Baroque palazzos built by Italian nobility. Enjoy time at leisure in this beguiling village.

Cultural Enrichment: Atop the summit of Sacro Monte di Orta—one of nine sacred mountains in northern Italy and a UNESCO World Heritage site—amidst a picturesque landscape of forested hills, visit several small chapels dedicated to St. Francis of Assisi, decorated with elaborate frescoes built between the 16th and 18th centuries.

Isola San Giulio
Cruise across cobalt-blue Lake Orta in a private boat to diminutive and rarely-visited Isola San Giulio, taking in stunning views of picture-perfect Italian villas and gardens along the way. Robert Browning, Honoré de Balzac and Lord Byron all wrote of this intimate island’s sublime beauty. Visit the 12th-century Romanesque-style Basilica San Giulio, whose opulent interior is adorned with richly detailed frescoes painted upon the nave, chapel, vaults and aisles; then, stroll the monastery’s lush grounds.

The Palace Hotel
The ideally located, classic belle époque Palace Hotel is a delightful establishment with an ideal setting on the lungolago (lakefront promenade) overlooking Lake Como, just steps away from Como’s beautiful marble Duomo and the medieval, pedestrian-only town center. Venetian stucco artistry, Italian marble and antique furniture provide subtle touches of 19th-century elegance throughout the hotel.

Its expertly landscaped gardens are the perfect setting to admire enchanting views across Lake Como. The Garden Bar Ceccato, with its summer terrace overlooking the lake, is an excellent place to enjoy the hotel’s renowned homemade ice cream or a cappuccino.

Each of the hotel’s 94 recently renovated guest rooms is tastefully appointed with a private bathroom, air conditioning, satellite television, minibar and hair dryer. Meals feature fresh seasonal Italian ingredients, local specialties and international cuisine. Regional wine selections accompany dinner. The hotel staff provides exceptional service.

For centuries, Italy’s Lake District has seduced hearts, minds and souls, including those of Virgil, Napoleon, Byron, Stendhal, Wordsworth, Shelley, Wharton, Verdi, Puccini, Toscanini, Twain and Hemingway. Long before the Romans annexed the region 2000 years ago and began to build their well-ordered towns, it was settled by Etruscans and invaded by Celts. Following the Romans, Middle Ages and Renaissance, nobility built palatial holiday villas, filled them with priceless art and laid out extraordinary gardens. European aristocrats of the 18th and 19th centuries considered the Italian Lake District an essential stop on their “Grand Tour” of Europe.

Lombardy became one of the richest and most economically developed areas of Italy and Europe due to its agricultural production, trade and banking activities that extended throughout the continent.

To this day, the region remains of paramount importance to Italy. The mild climate and the snowcapped Alpine peaks descending to serene lake shores continue to lure the wealthy, as well as celebrities and travelers from around the world. From the deep-blue glacial lakes of Como, Maggiore and picturesque Orta to the enchanting Villa del Balbianello, and from colorful Bellagio—“Pearl of Lake Como”—to the modern sophistication of Milan, discover the exquisite gem that is the Italian Lake District.
Nestled on the shores of Lake Como and surrounded by majestic Alpine peaks, the legendary Villa del Balbianello has one of the most beautiful and dramatic settings in all of Italy.
