In this session, Dr. Ellis will discuss how to recognize and combat unconscious bias, with a particular focus on how this might occur in a classroom environment. This will be an interactive and thought-provoking session, where engagement is essential (and fun!).