You are planning a trip to the Middle East that will include three of the countries mentioned in the program. Some of these countries may require entry visas and you need to call their embassies to get information. Also, you will need to know more about the currencies in these countries.

Using the web and/or phone directories, obtain the phone numbers of the embassies or consulates of the four countries you plan to visit and the name of the currency in each country and its equivalent in US $.

Share all this info with your (أستاذة) and classmates.
