Wednesday, June 8, from 11 a.m. to noon CT via Zoom

During a panel discussion on Employee Assistance Program June 8

Thinking about how to shift old patterns that have kept people

Next generation to implement change

Devices that support neurodiverse individuals, and/or that are

Development, deployment and commercialization of future of work

The NISE program engages students across STEM disciplines in the Inspired Science and Engineering graduate trainee program. The

Applications are open through June 15 for the Neurodiversity

Graduate trainee program now accepting applications

Widespread use of machines in Campus Dining facilities by multilingual employees improve overall employee safety, they focused on the use of large

Peabody College graduate students Sara Davis and Burcak Kaynar faculty members, deans, an alumnus and a current next dean of Vanderbilt Divinity School. The committee includes

Provost and Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs C. Cybele Raver

Vanderbilt Stadium on May 13.

Past four years when he delivered his Commencement address at

Chancellor Daniel Diermeier congratulated the Class of 2022 for courage, 'dare to grow'

Schools Hall of Fame for 2022

Director of Executive Projects, Office for Equity, Diversity and Inclusion

In solidarity, gratitude and PRIDE,

To each of my siblings, thank you for being yourselves and offering me space to

More than anything, I'm grateful for my extraordinary, diverse LGBTQIA+ family.

Transformative work to support our community and fight for equality.

That I get to work together with these organizations in this important,

Working to make Nashville and Tennessee a safer place for us—the IN TN organizations that were either formed or gained momentum after the uprising. I

First Pride parade to mark the one-year anniversary of the Stonewall uprising. I

Women of color. I am grateful for the community members who organized the Stonewall, especially

Community today. I am grateful for the bravery and activism of those who stood

Generations and my ancestors in this movement who paved the way for many of

Choose to intentionally focus on the joy, pride and gratitude I have for past

Devastating, especially in Tennessee, there is still much to celebrate. Today I

While the reality of being a queer person in 2022 is nothing short of

Equality bills

Community. In

Tennessee and other parts of the United States, in addition to the global

It is still incredibly challenging and dangerous for many LGBTQIA+ individuals

The road to achieving freedom and equality for all LGBTQIA+ people truly is.

That sparked the beginning of what was then

June, over 50 years after the

As we look ahead to LGBTQIA+ Pride Month in

Pride and Gratitude