The 2017 Chancellor’s Awards for Research on Equity, Diversity and Inclusion

These Chancellor’s Awards for Research will recognize excellence in research, scholarship, or creative expression that advance our understanding of equity, diversity and inclusion. The awards will be given for works presented or published on these topics in the preceding three calendar years. This year’s awards will be given for works that appeared in 2014, 2015, or 2016. Up to five awards may be given each year. All full-time faculty are eligible for consideration. Furthermore, research teams (two or more faculty) at Vanderbilt are also eligible for consideration. The team would be a single nomination and would share the award.

Nominations must include the following materials:

1. A brief description of the nominated work and comments on the significance of the outlet/placement of the work.
2. Current curriculum vitae;
3. A copy of the article or, in the case of a book, a significant chapter. For creative works or presentations, an appropriate archival record may be submitted.

Previous recipients are not eligible to receive a second award. The list of past winners can be found at http://vanderbilt.edu/faculty-development-diversity/awards/CRAEDI.php.

Complete nominations must be received by 5:00 p.m. on Friday, May 26, 2017.

Please submit all nominations electronically via InfoReady (https://vanderbilt.infready4.com/). You must log in to the system using your VUnetID and password. Please direct any questions to Lauren Rodgers (lauren.rogers@vanderbilt.edu).
