A Vanderbilt Faculty Senate Resolution Honoring Staff

WHEREAS the Staff of Vanderbilt University have faced the challenges of the last years with extraordinary courage and resolve, and

WHEREAS Staff have maintained missional integrity despite employment uncertainty and fiscal restrictions, and

Provided support services deemed essential in storms and in plagues, and have

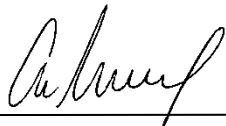

Repeatedly sacrificed nights and weekends, often with no end in sight, and have exhibited grace in the face of relentless pressure from faculty, students, parents, and administration, and

WHEREAS Staff have matched seemingly impossible demands with ingenious solutions and a refusal to capitulate, and

WHEREAS Staff have shown professional poise in the midst of radical impacts to their homes, including new demands as parents, caregivers, spouses and partners, and

WHEREAS Staff have nonetheless prioritized the collective good over individual needs,

BE IT RESOLVED THAT The Vanderbilt University Faculty Senate honors its staff colleagues and extends profound gratitude to these esteemed and invaluable partners.
