

INTERNATIONAL EDUCATION WEEK

November 13–20

ANCHOR UP
EXPLORE
YOUR WORLD

#IEW16

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 13

INTERNATIONAL EDUCATION WEEK KICK-OFF COOK-OUT 4:00–7:00 PM | STUDENT LIFE CENTER PLAZA

To celebrate the start of International Education Week, International Student and Scholar Services (ISSS) and the Office of Equity, Diversity and Inclusion will be hosting a cook-out for all Vanderbilt community members. Stop by for some food and learn more about the schedule for #IEW16.

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 14

WOMEN IN THE GLOBAL UNIVERSITY 12:00–1:30 PM | BUTTRICK 123

The Women in the Academy series offers Ph.D. students a chance to reflect on the ways that gender affects their experience as they begin their professional journey in the academy. Sponsored by the Margaret Cuninggim Women's Center and the Graduate School.

CULTURE CAFE

12:00–1:00 PM | CENTER FOR STUDENT WELLBEING

Join fellow peers for lunch and conversation about cultural similarities, differences and international student experiences. Space is limited. Please RSVP on Anchor Link: <https://anchorlink.vanderbilt.edu/organization/internationalstudentandscholarservices/calendar/details/1053916>. Sponsored by the PCC, ISSS, and Center for Student Wellbeing.

GLOBAL PERSPECTIVE ON UNCONSCIOUS BIAS 4:00–5:00 PM | ALUMNI HALL • 206 READING ROOM

Current students share their experiences joining a service trip to countries abroad. Representatives from OACS will also be on hand to provide information about upcoming Global Service trips to Ecuador, South Africa, Morocco and London. Sponsored by the Office of Active Citizenship and Service and the Office of Equity, Diversity and Inclusion.

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 15

WORLD CUP CEREMONY

11:00 AM–2:00 PM | ALUMNI HALL • 100 LOUNGE

Celebrate and taste teas from around the world. ISSS and ISC will provide free teas and snacks as part of International Education Week. Stop by and hang out. Sponsored by ISSS and International Student Council.

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 16

MOROCCO ON THE MOVE – WORLD ON WEDNESDAY 12:00–1:00 PM | STUDENT LIFE CENTER • LL ROOMS 1&2

Since ascending the throne in 1999, King of Morocco Mohamed IV has launched different reform initiatives to address issues of democracy, human rights, and public policy. In this special edition of World on Wednesday, we will identify the impact of these reforms and explore the potential Morocco has to be an emerging country in the region. Free lunch for all attendees. Sponsored by ISSS and the Hubert H. Humphrey Fellowship Program.

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 16 (CONT)

LET'S TALK HEALTH AND WELLNESS 6:00–7:30 PM | ISSS LOBBY • SLC SUITE 109

This iLEAD seminar discusses ways to stay healthy on campus and provides strategies for practicing healthy and mindful behavior. Share your own experiences and learn from others. Light refreshments available. Sponsored by ISSS and iLEAD.

SIMHA • ILENS FILM 7:30 PM | SARRATT CINEMA

The film follows the fieldwork and personal life of French-Israeli ethnomusicologist Simha Arom who deciphered the polyphonies of the Pygmies of Central Africa. English subtitles. Presented by: Gregory Melchor-Barz, Professor of Ethnomusicology and Faculty Head of North Horse, The Ingram Commons. Sponsored by Dean of Students, North Horse – The Martha Rivers Ingram Commons.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 17

PASSPORT FAIR

9:00 AM–3:00 PM | SARRATT STUDENT CENTER • ROOM 331

Planning to travel to a foreign country? Vanderbilt University has teamed up with the U. S. Department of State for a workshop where you can apply or renew your passport in 15 minutes. To sign up for your appointment time, please RSVP here: <http://http://vanderbi.lt/2016passport>. More information on required documents to bring can be found on the ISSS website. Drop-ins are welcome. Note: Domestic residents only. Sponsored by the Global Education Office and ISSS.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 18

DISCOVER YOURSELF AND DEVELOP YOUR VISION 4:00–5:30 PM | SLC BALLROOM C

Join the Career Center for an interactive workshop that explores your career path and goals. Reflect on your past experiences to develop a vision for the future. Learn about different resources and services that will expand your opportunities globally. Sponsored by the Career Center.

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 20

INTERNATIONAL TRANSGENDER DAY OF REMEMBRANCE — NASHVILLE 6:00 PM | BELMONT UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

This annual ceremony recognizes and honors the transgender people who have been victims of violence, transphobia, and hate around the world over the past year and beyond. Join LGBTQI Life and various Nashville LGBTQI+ community organizations to remember, reflect, and remain resilient. Doors open at 5:30 PM. Email Liv Parks at liv.parks@vanderbilt.edu for more information or to volunteer.

DEAN OF Students

International Student
& Scholar Services

VANDERBILT  UNIVERSITY