WORLD ON WEDNESDAYS (WOW)

World on Wednesdays is a forum for student, staff, and faculty presentations, informal conversations, and topical lectures on global issues. All are welcome to participate as presenters or audience members. To present, please fill out this proposal and return it to International Student & Scholar Services.

WoW meets once a month, from 12 PM – 1 PM on the event dates. The dates and locations for Spring 2017 are:

- February 8th, Sarratt Student Center 325/327
- March 15th, Sarratt Student Center 216/220
- April 12th, Sarratt Student Center 325/327

PRESENTER PROPOSAL

For each presenter, indicate whether they are faculty, student, staff, or other. If faculty or staff, provide their preferred title/affiliation within the University, for students provide major and year, and for other provide relevant titles/affiliations. This helps with accurate advertising!

Presenter(s):

__________________________

____________________________________________________________________________________________

Email: __________________________________________ Phone: ________________________________

Preferred Presentation Date: (1) ____________________ (2) ____________________ (3) ____________________

Suggested Title of Presentation (100 characters or less):

____________________________________________________________________________________________

Abstract (for advertising; 50 words or less):

____________________________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________________________

Sponsoring Organizations, Clubs, Departments, or Agencies:

____________________________________________________________________________________________

Please provide names of specific Vanderbilt departments, student and/or community organizations to target for advertising purposes:

____________________________________________________________________________________________

Thank you for your interest in World on Wednesdays!

Applications are due on Friday, December 9th, 2016.

For questions, contact Derrick Stevens at isss@vanderbilt.edu

PLEASE RETURN THIS PROPOSAL TO: