Content Description
The “Annual Subscription” consists of public opinion surveys carried out by the Latin American Public Opinion project as part of its AmericasBarometer series. The sample sizes, county coverage and questionnaire content will vary from survey wave to wave. Normally, a new wave is conducted every two years, but this is not guaranteed as it depends on grant and contract funding to the Latin American Public Opinion Project. The subscription does not cover special purpose samples that may be carried out from time-to-time, even when those are listed on the LAPOP web site (www.LapopSurveys.org).

Annual Subscription
The subscription runs for one year, starting the day after both a signed Licensing Agreement and payment are received by Vanderbilt. During the subscription period, the Individual Subscriber may download the data files at any time and for as many times as needed. AmericasBarometer data may be used only during the valid term of the subscription.

Annual Subscription Fee/Type
To subscribe to the entire AmericasBarometer series (2004, 2006, 2008, 2010, with new survey years added automatically once available), the subscription fee depends on the location of the Subscriber. If Subscriber is located in the U.S., Canada, Japan, Western Europe or in a European Union member country*, the subscription is a flat $1,500 fee per year. If the Subscriber is located in any other part of the world, the subscription is a flat $500 fee per year.

*Individuals and institutions located in the U.S., Canada, Japan, Western Europe and European Union member countries have a different type of subscription than those in other countries. This allows us to discount the cost of data sets to certain countries, providing more fair access. Countries in the European Union or who are considered to be in Western Europe are: Austria, Belgium, Bulgaria, Czech Republic, Denmark, Estonia, Finland, France, Germany, Greece, Hungary, Ireland, Italy, Latvia, Liechtenstein, Lithuania, Luxembourg, Malta, Monaco, Netherlands, Poland, Portugal, Romania, Slovakia, Slovenia, Spain, Sweden, and the United Kingdom.

Authorized Users, Subscribers and Access
The “Subscriber” and “Authorized User” is the individual that purchases the annual subscription from Vanderbilt and pays the subscription fee.

The Subscriber shall choose between two options to access the data sets. The first and preferred method is via IP authentication, as it is the most convenient option for both Subscribers and LAPOP. The second is using a username and password to log in. Either option is only for use by the Subscriber. Access to the database will expire upon termination of the agreement.

IP Authentication Requirements:
You must have a fixed IP address or range of IP addresses through which you connect to the internet (individual computers may have dynamic server-assigned addresses as long as they use a gateway with a static address to access the internet). Once your IP address(es) are sent to LAPOP, Subscriber access will be set up via IP authentication.

Username / Password Log In
For those prefer to access the data via username and password, a username and password will be set up for the Subscriber.

Permitted Uses for Individual Subscribers
- Retrieve Subscribed Materials
- Print, download, and digitally copy Subscribed Materials
- Authorized Users shall be permitted to extract or use information contained in the database for educational, scientific, or research purposes, such as extraction, manipulation and recombination of information for the purpose of illustration, explanation, example, comment, criticism, teaching, research, or analysis.
• Nothing in this agreement shall limit the Subscriber’s rights consistent with U.S. copyright law.

Prohibited Uses
• Subscriber may not transmit any portion of the Subscribed Materials to a third party, in hard copy or electronically.
• No commercial use of the Subscribed Materials is permitted.

Human Subjects Protection Clause
• All LAPOP data sets distributed via this agreement have been collected in conformance with U.S. Federal Human Subjects protection regulations, as implemented by the Vanderbilt University Institutional Review Board. Furthermore, the data being distributed are “deidentified,” such that users of the survey data should not be able to identify any individual who responded to the surveys. All U.S. institutions and users who obtain a User Subscription from LAPOP are expected to do so in complete conformity with applicable Federal human subjects protection rules. Other users should respect the principles of these U.S. regulations in every respect.

Renewal of Subscription
Vanderbilt will make a good faith effort to notify the Individual Subscriber at least 30 days prior to the end of their subscription period to offer renewal of the subscription. Subscription access will terminate one year from the start date of the subscription, which is the date Vanderbilt granted access granted to the Subscriber, unless renewal of the subscription has been initiated by the Subscriber.

Licensor Responsibilities
The Licensor shall:
• Make the Subscribed Material available to the Individual Subscriber from the commencement of the subscription period;
• Other than making the data available in SPSS and/or STATA format in a timely fashion, the Licensor provides no other performance warranties;
• Use reasonable efforts to provide continuous service (an average of 98% uptime per month) with limited down time for maintenance of server(s), the installation or testing of data, the loading of additional Subscribed Materials as they become available, or downtime related to the failure of equipment or services outside the control of Licensor. The Licensor shall use reasonable efforts to restore access to the Subscribed Materials as soon as possible. Any extended periods of down time shall be reimbursed through prorated discounts or extended access to the Subscribed Materials;
• Provide notification of any suspected or alleged subscription violations that come to the attention of the Licensor and allow a reasonable time (30 days from the Subscriber’s receipt of notice of the violation) for the institution to investigate and take corrective action.
