

Dear Insights Series Subscribers,

We are pleased to announce that the 2012 AmericasBarometer survey is complete. The 2012 round covers 26 nations and over 40,000 interviews. Our researchers are busily analyzing the data for our next series of Insights reports. In order to dedicate all our time to that immense task, we have decided not to publish more reports on the 2010 data set. As soon as we have interesting findings to report, we will resume the series, hopefully in the late fall, but no later than early 2013.

The data for the 2012 round of the AmericasBarometer will be available on our website in December 2012.

As a new policy beginning December 1, 2012, LAPOP will grant unrestricted world-wide access to the AmericasBarometer surveys (2004, 2006, 2008, 2010, and 2012; a total of 113 datasets). This policy is made possible thanks to generous support from the Tinker Foundation and the other core donors for the AmericasBarometer project.

Subscribers will, in addition, have access to multi-year merged files and a cross-country, cross-time merge of the AmericasBarometer. Subscribers will also have access to LAPOP-generated ado files and technical support.

More information can be found on our website at: <http://www.vanderbilt.edu/lapop/free-access.php>

Thank you for your interest in the Insights series and LAPOP's AmericasBarometer. We look forward with excitement to distributing new reports to you on the 2012 data once the Insights series resumes. For more information on subscribing to the data, please contact our Subscription Coordinator, Ms. Rubí Arana, rubi.e.arana@vanderbilt.edu.

Warm regards,

Mitchell Seligson, LAPOP Director
