

Panama 1991: Study of Elites

Technical Information

Country	Year	Size of Sample	Weighted/Unweighted
Panama	1991	29	Unweighted

This is a small sample not representative of the national population or the political elites in Panama. Legislators, ambassadors, police chiefs and other high level State officers were selected. Only 29 observations were collected, 25 of them among male respondents. It was designed to compliment the large urban sample conducted in that same year.

The fieldwork was undertaken by Orlando Pérez, now at Central Michigan University.
