

Welcome to everyone, and thank you for joining! This is the inaugural email for the new SustainVU email list. We are hoping this will be a useful way to let you know about sustainability-related events and projects happening around campus.

As a start, I have included below announcements about the Recycling Open Forum in September and the Employee Celebration presentation in October. We hope to see you at both events. Again, thank you for joining!

The VU Community is invited to a Recycling Open Forum!

What: Vanderbilt University has hired a recycling coordinator! Come to meet her, ask questions about where the program is, and find out what is happening with greening at VU. Bring your suggestions, ideas and hopes.

Where: Bishop Joseph Johnson Black Cultural Center Auditorium

When: Wednesday, Sept 5 from 5:00-6:00pm

Questions? Call E.ARTH (3.2784), email recycle@vanderbilt.edu

What: Andrea George will be presenting a lunch seminar as part of VU Employee Celebration Month. The seminar is entitled "Sustainability at Vanderbilt: Campus Efforts to Go Green".

Where: 411 Light Hall

When: Tuesday, October 2 from Noon-1pm

Questions? Call 322-4551, email andrea.george@vanderbilt.edu
