

2019 GLOBAL HEALTH CASE COMPETITION

PARTICIPANT FEEDBACK

Contribution to Personal Enrichment

- 100% of those who filled out the survey agreed or strongly agreed that the competition...
 - “increased my knowledge of Kenya”
 - “increased my knowledge of non-communicable diseases”
 - “increased my understanding of global health”
- 65.4% of those who filled out the survey agreed or strongly agreed that the competition...
 - “has impacted my decision of my major and/or program of study”
 - “has impacted my future career goals”
- 88.5% of those who filled out the survey agreed or strongly agreed that the competition...
 - “has been the highlight of my time at Vanderbilt”
- 61.5% of participants on the survey commented on their overall impression of the event
 - 100% of these individuals included positive feelings towards the competition and their learning experience

Contribution to Overall Vanderbilt Experience

- 100% of participants agreed that the competition was academically stimulating
- 73.1% of participants thought that it helped with their professional development
- 80.8% of participants thought that it helped with their social skills