President’s Message

Our opening Tea was a great success. Thank you again to VWC member and chancellor’s wife Lydia Howarth for opening the residence, providing such a wonderful tea along with an enlightening speaker Valerie Hotchkiss, Vanderbilt University Librarian. I was amazed at how many wonderful libraries Vanderbilt has and how often they are used. It was wonderful to learn more about the Friends of the Library from Connie Heard whose mother helped form the group. The food was delicious and the company superb.

Honoring our lifetime members is an important VWC tradition. In the spirit of getting to know this group even better member, Rita Hall has agreed to explore the lives and times of these members. Thank you, Rita, for saying yes.

Helping to celebrate our 125 years we are updating our Vanderbilt Woman’s Club book. Betsy Fleetwood and Lisa LeMaster are working on this project. After spending some glorious time in the VWC archives it became clear to me that the information contained there needs to be saved. The board is exploring the options for getting that done.

Please feel free to bring a potential new member to the Newcomers Event October 4th 7-9pm. Our next event is the Fall Luncheon October 25th, at the Harding House in the Belle Meade Mansion.

There are two wonderful tours available at the Belle Meade Mansion one on Mourning and one on Plantation Life from the slave’s point of view.

Also, please consider filling out the form to volunteer in this newsletter so we can reach out and help welcome new Vanderbilt employees or their spouses to Nashville and the VWC. I’m available to answer any questions at joyallingtonbaum@gmail.com or 214-755-5328.

Save the date for the Vanderbilt Woman’s Club scholarship fundraising event ScholarSongs Sunday February 24th from 5-8 pm at the Listening Room. We will have a silent auction, cheese and fruit reception then dinner, beer and wine along with great music. More details to follow.

Joy    Good food, good company great listening music and a wonderful atmosphere. You can’t ask for anything better.

News from our Scholar - Mason Grow

This summer, I worked at Barefoot Republic Camp as their Head Counselor. It was a rewarding experience; full of hard work and loud laughter. Moving into this year, I’m ready to complete my Political Science major in the fall semester, and wrap up the Psychology major in the spring. I’m excited to take Comparative Political Parties, Intro to American Law, and Political Strategy/Game Theory this semester, along with Intro German! Along with my classes this year, I will be studying for the LSAT—which I intend to take in June. I’ll also be applying for internships for next year, as I intend to take a gap year before entering law school. As I pack up and prepare for the year ahead, I cannot wait to get to campus, see my friends, and get started on this seventh semester. I’m looking forward to diving into my classes, working as the Concert Choir’s Alumni Historian, and relishing every moment of my senior year! I’m so grateful to the Vanderbilt Woman’s Club for helping to make these four years possible!

She gained her Masters E.D. from Seton Hall University. Lael lived in Hong Kong the first year she graduated from college and was able to travel through Asia at that time. She likes to read, needlepoint, and play bridge. She is currently kept busy training her Golden Retriever puppy, Winnie. Lael loves shoes and shoe shopping. Her favorite foods are Peppermint Stick ice cream and Thai food. She is connected to Vanderbilt thru her children. Her son graduated in May and is currently in flight school with the Navy in Pensacola, FL. Her daughter is a freshman engineering student at Vanderbilt and her other son is a rising Senior at Lafayette.

Janet Schneider  Janet has lived in Nashville since 1969 when she entered Vanderbilt attending the College of Arts and Sciences. Before coming to Nashville Janet lived in Herrin, Illinois a small town in Southern Illinois. While at Vanderbilt she was in the Chi Omega sorority. Janet has worked at the University School for the past 44 years first as a teacher then as the school’s college counsellor. Her hobbies include reading, (she belongs to a book club), music (she follows a very special musician, her son), she cooks and cans and enjoys trying new restaurants. Fixing Sunday lunch for family and friends gives her a great deal of pleasure along with attending Westminster Pres. Janet’s secret indulgence is watching Netflix. Her favorite drink is Pimm’s Cup or sparkling wine and her favorite food is lobster rolls. She will retire in a few years and is looking forward to attending what she can for now.

Nancy Gentry  Nancy is a Nashville native, born and raised. She is married to her husband of 51 years, Ken, and she has two grown daughters, but, alas no grandchildren as yet, just grand cats. She graduated from Baptist Hospital as a Registered Nurse 51 years ago and then went to Vanderbilt for her BSN. She obtained her MSN at UTK. She has worked in many areas of nursing; staff nursing, administration, education, and quality assurance. For the last few years she has worked part time at Vanderbilt, in the Informatics field, but hopes to retire permanently after the first of the year. She loves sports, especially Vandy (ANCHOR DOWN!!!!) and the Titans, reading and travelling. She is happy to have become a member of this group of adventure-seeking women and is looking forward to many new adventures.

Jan Goddard  Jan has lived in Nashville for two years and is a transplant from Florida where she did a BS in Advertising and Marketing at Florida State. She worked for BellSouth in marketing until the children came and then devoted her time to volunteering. She started a Soup Kitchen for the homeless in Pensacola. With the children in school, she went back to do a masters in middle school English education and taught Language Arts until her retirement. After her husband’s death, she relocated to Nashville and became a classroom assistant and teacher in the Osher Lifetime Learning Institute at Vanderbilt. She is chair of the Classroom Assistant Committee on the Advisory Board of OLLI. Her hobbies include walking, cycling, traveling, reading and spending time with family.

Keara Kelly  and her husband, Assistant Prof. of Mathematics Wöden Kusner, moved to Nashville just in time to see the spectacular solar eclipse last August. Keara was working on fundraising projects for the Tennessee Justice Center until she began the full-time MBA program at Vanderbilt’s Owen Graduate School of Management this summer. Prior to moving to Nashville, Keara spent two years teaching English in Graz, Austria and 6 years working on technology implementations in Pittsburgh, PA, where she also coached and performed improvised comedy theater.
Susan Winchester was born and reared in Hannibal, Mo. which is the boyhood home of Mark Twain. Growing up, her entire family showed American Saddlebred horses due to the interest of her veterinarian Father. She learned early on with showing, that politics are everywhere. Her parents instilled in their children the love of horses and exhibiting and that having fun was the important factor. Those were certainly powerful lessons as a young girl. Susan moved to Del Webb in Mount Juliet in March of 2013 from St. Louis, Mo. She is a Vanderbilt nursing graduate and worked at Vanderbilt Children's Hospital after graduation. Susan then moved and worked at the University of North Carolina Hospital in adult med-surg. With the decision that she wanted to go in to nursing administration, she received her masters in that field. Most of her career was then in the Midwest as a director of nursing in hospitals. She is very active in the community where she lives. There are so many fun clubs that she enjoys -- woman's club, hiking, and wine and many learning opportunities. Susan likes to attend great exercise classes and she loves Zumba. The Fort Nashborough chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution is very dear to her heart and provides an opportunity to acknowledge our history and support our veterans. The love of history is within her and she gained that through her parents. Her Father had a Civil War Fort moved to their property in Hannibal to preserve it. Showcased was a fantastic collection of spurs, carriages, guns and artifacts that was wonderful. She is having fun exploring Nashville and the state and to learn of its history.

Terry Hinson moved back to Nashville in 2005 after 15 years enjoying other parts of the country. She grew up in Cincinnati and later graduated from Christ Hospital/University of Cincinnati in Nursing. Terry focused her career in Intensive Cardiac Care and Rehabilitation, setting up the Cardiac Rehabilitation Department at University of Missouri. Terry and her husband Jim, as well as their three children, are all in the health care field. Terry began learning Spanish as a means of communicating with patients, but continues to learn as a hobby. She enjoys meeting both native speakers and anyone who loves the language. She is a long time golfer and plays in two leagues. Other pastimes include reading, traveling and spending time with her family.

Kay Bjork was born in a small town in Connecticut on Long Island Sound, thirty-five miles from New York City. She and her husband moved to Nashville in 1960 and she finished school at Peabody in 1966. That was the year they had their daughter. Their son was born four years later. After being a wife and mother, she began teaching part-time in Metro Nashville's adult education program. She learned Braille to teach blind senior citizens, taught at Meharry's drug and alcohol program and the House of Friendship and the pre-GED program in Williamson County. Her career has spanned teaching full-time at Westminster School. She was recruited to teach in a cognitive education research program by the Kennedy Center. After that grant, she became Director of Education for the Youth Service job placement program for the Pencil Foundation, followed by Director of Education for Junior Achievement. Kay has always volunteered: as a leader and County Chairman for the Girl Scouts, even started a day camp for girls 6-18 (Camp Briarwood). She was a museum docent for twelve years at Cheekwood and is still active with the Friends of the Williamson County Public Library, having served four years as president. The book club she started forty-seven years ago is still active. Kay enjoys her two grandchildren, reading, bridge groups, garden club and, now, the Vanderbilt Woman's Club.

Vanderbilt Woman’s Club

The club has existed as support to the Vanderbilt community for 125 years - since 1893. We are here to offer a warm welcome to new and current faculty, staff and female partners. We would like to have all our current members help us to increase our visibility in the Vanderbilt community and we are the best voices to promote our organization.

The simplest and most personal way is to just invite people, individual or group, over to have tea or coffee and learn about the program. Or to meet someone for coffee. Depending on the date, various board members can attend the events. Please consider signing up for any of the below ways you can help.

____ I would host an event at my home
____ I would bake or bring goods to an event
____ I would help identify and/or invite new faculty and staff or their spouses
____ I would be able to attend and discuss the benefits of the Club
____ I would be able to create flyers for events

this party is for you!

Please join us on
