President’s Message

Well, we have started the year off with a bang. During our annual meeting we voted to change the bylaws to reflect the way the board positions have been running the past year. We also unanimously agreed on our executive board for next year. See details in this newsletter. Alice Randall was our featured speaker and we learned so much about the hidden black influences in country music. Thank you, Tracy Stadnick, for arranging this wonderful event for us.

Next up was our marvelous ScholarSongs event. The Loveless Barn was beautifully decorated by our decorating committee lead by Sue McDougall, Ebbie Redwine, Pat Holdridge and Susie Cohen. The Loveless Barn was truly transformed. Thank you also to Tracy Stadnick and Frannie Benner, our co-chairs for the event. It was an evening of good music, tasty food and wonderful company. Our scholarship student Emily Song was also able to attend and it was wonderful to put a face to our scholarship efforts.

Thank you to all who helped out, donating, setting up, working the event, cleaning up and just supporting the event any way you could. It is greatly appreciated and we are well on our way to a second endowed scholarship.

We closed out February with a lecture by the Chairman of the Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology about Women’s Health. Thank you, Tracy Stadnick, for organizing yet another great lecture and Nancy Gentry for organizing lunch after.

We are also welcoming many new members to our club. Please, if you see a new member reach out and make them welcome. If there is a person you think would benefit from our club or we would benefit from them please ask them to consider joining. They can contact Sharon Hels 615-715-3739 or shels53@gmail.com for more information.

Joy

What a terrific evening! ScholarSongs was held at the Loveless Barn with a Mardi Gras theme and music by Mockingbird Musicians. Our members and friends attended a lovely evening bidding on items from restaurants, books, sports, music, and venues around town. Thank you Frannie Benner for organizing our auction and your tireless efforts getting donations from businesses and members! The venue was very festive with decorations made by Sue McDougall and the decorating committee. Thanks to all of you for contributing to our evening! We have PRELIMINARY numbers of $14,000 raised for the Vanderbilt Woman’s Club Stapleton/Weaver Scholarship Fund! We have exceeded our goal of $10,000. Thank you all for your generous donations! We appreciate all of you for participating in this wonderful event! Thank you!

Alice Randall

Professor Randall teaches courses on soul food, African-American children's literature, African-American film, and Country Music. She is an award winning songwriter, a produced screenwriter, and has written four published novels and the forthcoming Black Bottom Saints. Her most recent work focuses on investigating ways that the arts can be used to battle health disparity in the United States and around the globe. Professor Randall spoke at the annual meeting on Black Country Music.

Dear Groupies:

Let's spring into March with some wonderful Jazz!

These are 2 events that are 2 nights in a row but we should be able to handle that, right?!?

First, on Sunday, March 8 at City Winery is the presentation from TN Jazz and Blues Society, Great Albums Concert Series presents: Sarah Vaughan's "How Long Has This Been Going On" performed by Connye Florance of Nashville and her band.

Doors open at 5:30 and show starts at 7pm. We should be able to get tables together.

The next night, Monday, March 9 at 7pm is the Music of Stevie Wonder at 2 Old Hippies, 401 12th Avenue South. Stevie Wonder has had my attention since "Fingertips Part 2"! I haven't been there for music but the store is SOOO interesting!! If anyone is interested we could grab some dinner before the show at one of the great restaurants in the area.

Just let me know who's interested in what. Should be great fun for either or both!!

Thanks!!

Community Explorers

Visit to Owl's Hill Nature Sanctuary March 23rd

Explore the beauty and serenity of Owl's Hill Nature Sanctuary with the Community Explorers on Monday, March 23rd at 10:00 a.m.

Owl's Hill provides a protected home for more than 2,000 species of local flora and fauna that thrive in the hills, forests, creeks, ponds and meadows of this 300-acre hidden gem in the Beech Creek Valley of northern Williamson County.

Join a Naturalist Trail Guide for a private wildflower hike to learn about our native wildlife and connect with nature.

Cost is $10 per person for the guided 1.5 hour hike.

Participants should dress for the weather.

- Wear closed-toe, comfortable shoes suitable for hiking.
- Also bring a reusable water bottle.

After our hike, we will gather for a lunch and learn with Owl's Hill Director, while we enjoy lunch (optional) provided by McAlister's, for an additional $10.50 per person.

The hike is limited to twenty participants.

Registration closes on March 19th. Please Register for the event via the following link:
https://secure.qgiv.com/for/erf/event/812315/

Also contact Ebbie Redwine at eredwine9@gmail.com
to let us know you’ve registered for the event (hike only, or hike + lunch).

Hope you can join us to explore all the colors of spring!!!
